Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- 1) The relief of physical and mental sickness of persons of the Sikh community in the UK that are in need by reason of addiction to alcohol and drugs, and, to provide counselling and support to the victims and their families.
 - 2) To promote for the benefit of the Sikh community in the UK the provision of services for mediation for victims of crime, with a view to help them get their life back on track.
 - 3) To preserve and protect the good health both mental and physical of parents, young people and children of the Sikh community in the UK and to prevent the financial hardship, caused by unwanted conception;
- (ii) To educate the community in the field of procreation, contraception, and health with particular reference to personal responsibility in sexual relationships and to the consequences of population growth.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity has strengthened its engagement and collaboration with Gurdwaras (Sikh places of worship). We have conducted multiple visits, delivering seminars on protecting children in vulnerable situations and promoting a positive approach to sexual health.

Additionally, we have delivered two in-depth courses, each spanning 8 to 10 days, focused on parental guidance. These sessions aimed to equip parents with the tools to foster healthier interpersonal relationships and improve communication within families.

To enhance our outreach, we have also been working on a social media revamp, exploring various platforms and strategies to expand our reach and engagement.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In summary, the charity made substantial progress in raising public awareness expanding its charitable activities. It successfully achieved its goals of promoting values, serving those in need, and creating a more inclusive and compassionate society.

Operating the 24 hours help line to advice and give support were needed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met.
