Report of the Trustees (Contd)

Volunteers

RCCG The Kings Sanctuary is grateful for the immense effort of all its dedicated volunteers who ensure that all our activities are well organised and professionally conducted.

Trustees' responsibilities

Law applicable to charities and companies in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statement for each financial year which gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of surplus or deficit for the period. In preparing the financial statements the trustees have;

- Selected suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently.
- Made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- Stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed.
- Prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The trustees have overall responsibility of ensuring that the church has an appropriate system of controls; financial or otherwise. They are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at anytime the financial position of the church, and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with FRS 102 SORP for Charities and the Charities Act 2011. They are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence take reasonable steps for the detection and prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved for the board of trustees on the 22 June 2025.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD ("RCCG") THE KINGS SANCTUARY

We report on the accounts of the Redeemed Christian Church of God ("RCCG") -
The Kings Sanctuary for the year ended 31st December 2024, which are set out on pages 6 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the account under (section 145 of the 2011 Act);
- to following the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006;
 - and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of the section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
