Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Over the last year

As a thriving charity, with confidence we can state that we have been making a huge difference in the lives of the poor and needy in India (Gujarat) with the help and support that we get from our generous donors. We are constantly reviewing and visiting different villages so we can really grasp what the poor and needy need. You can see this by the on-going projects we have been working on. Day by day the charity is doing better and we feel that more people are approaching us for help and support. IWARF assists those who suffer from poverty, Illiteracy, diseases and lack of economical support. IWARF strives hard to aid the most vulnerable in society, namely the widows, young girls, orphans and the elderly.

Education

IWARF believes that education is vital for every individual in their life. IWARF also believes that education is one of the paths to remove poverty and the road to a brighter future for the poor and needy. We help each individual with good quality education in English by helping them with their fees, uniform, books bags and essentials that they would need on a day to day basis. We want the children to aim high by ensuring they progress to higher education with our help and support. Last year we helped more than 250 individuals to get higher education which will help them in the future and we helped more than 160 children in secondary school by giving them uniform, books and fees.

Ramadan

As Ramadan and Eid is a very special time for every Muslim, IWARF believes that every family should have the means to get through Ramadhan at ease. We provide Iftaar packages which includes basics such as, rice, flour, oil, lentils etc. In addition IWARF do not forget the poor families in the happy occasion of Eid. We help 1,250 families during Ramadan and 210 families during Eid.

May Allah reward all that have donated during the past year; we could not have accomplished this without your generous donations.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been met ; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
