Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in particular but not exclusively Article 16 and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) by such charitable means as the trustees see fit including:

1. Monitoring abuses of human rights;
2. Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse;
3. Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse;
4. Research into human rights issues;
5. Providing technical advice to government and others on human rights matters;
6. Contributing to the sound administration of human rights law;
7. Commenting on proposed human rights legislation;
8. Raising awareness of human rights issues;
9. Promoting public support for human rights;
10. Promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations;
11. International advocacy of human rights;
12. Eliminating infringements of human rights.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Following activities undertaken by the trustees on behalf of the organisation, having regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit:

- Campaigning to raise awareness of UK's divisive family immigration rules, including spouse/partner migration rules and adult dependant relatives
- Plight of refugees
- Providing advice and support to those seeking information on family reunification, including through the use of free movement rights
