Principal activities

The Charity principal activity during the year was continued to be ministering to church members and the community.

We also acquire new facility to enhance our services and we move in, which has been very helpful to us to carry out more duties and services. Our church membership has grown numerous and we give God all the glory. We are increasing in member by the grace of God.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime.

And also statutory requirements of the governing document and the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in March 2010

The Trustees are satisfied that the charity is entitled to exemption from the requirement to obtain an audit under section 415A of the Companies Act 2006.

The members have not required the charity or company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Company Act 2006.

Therefore, trustees acknowledged their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 03rd October 2022 and signed on behalf, by:

Adebambo ILori

Accountant's Report

Accountants' report to the Trustees of Dove Chapel

We have carried our normal independence duties to Dove chapel as usual as Accountants to the charity. And we consider that the Charity is exempt from an audit for the year ended 31st December 2021

Dove chapel trustees have acknowledged, on the accounts and balance sheet, their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

These responsibilities include preparing accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year.

In accordance with their instructions, we have carried out prepared accounts which comprised the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes from the accounting records of the charity and on the basis of information and explanations given to us by trustees and management.

The trustees have assessed the all-risk to which the charity is exposed, and are satisfied that internal control systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the any risks.

Current performance of the charity is doing really in terms of growth in members and care for the community they reside.

We have not carried out any audit /or any other review, and consequently we do not express any opinion on these accounts.
