Trustees Report:

Activities 6 April 2021 – 5 April 2022

The Charity was constrained again due to Covid-19 pandemic during this period.

The Charity had intended to offer bursaries to online educational meetings that meet its educational goals, however no applications were made as the vast majority of such activities were either free of charge or at minimal cost.

The Charity Trustees intend to resume educational activities and award bursaries at the earliest opportunity during 2022.

Trustees Report:

The Charity sadly reports that due Covid-19 pandemic, no activities have taken place during this period.

The Charity had outstanding expenditure commitments from the previous year but no income was generated in the period. The Charity had intended to offer bursaries to online educational meetings that meet its educational goals, however no applications were made as the vast majority of such activities were either free of charge or at minimal cost.
