Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We continued with online lessons until we were able to open up and bring all our users back on site. with the adult users not returning until the back end of 2021, to make sure the rooms were only used by the young children as a precaution.

We made a decision to invest in some volunteer training and we have scheduled for early 2022 some Arts Award delivery training so that we can delivered a recognised art certificate to our users with the possibility of opening up to none home educated children in the near future.

The young users continue to grow in both confidence and ability with more and more parents asking to join our groups.

The adult group is still well attended with some travelling form outside the area to join in, some user pop in not to work on a creative project but to be with others adults on a social level, we welcome their participation in the group.
