Moving from Bird Cage walk has not negatively impacted any of our services. In fact Dudley library has proved to be a positive change for our older users. Anecdotally we have attendees who have made firm friendships within the group and outside of Artspace Dudley have become their own support group.

Our Home education groups are thriving and we are now planning to commence The Arts Award. Their art skill levels and their group interaction levels have come on so much. Artspace Dudley is making such a difference in their learning lives.
