STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

As set out in the charity's constitution, new trustees are appointed by the board of trustees.

New trustees receive a full copy of the constitution, a copy of the latest trustees report and accounts and other information necessary for them to undertake their role within the charity.

Organisational structure

The charity is run by a board of trustees who are responsible for the overall strategic management of the organisation. The body of the trustees consist of a minimum of three trustees.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the organisation may be exposed to and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. This is completed by a review of the activities of the charity.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and achievements

The objects of the Foundation are as defined in clause 3 of the Constitution and are "to promote art and the City of Birmingham for the benefit of the public by the establishment of public artwork in Birmingham".

Through the Birmingham Big Art Project, the Birmingham Big Art Foundation aims to commission an internationally significant work of public contemporary art for the city of Birmingham supported by the Birmingham Civic Society. Eastside Projects are the commissioning agents, responsible for curating the process and artwork.

The objective of the Project is to commission and install an iconic piece of public art within Birmingham that is high quality, innovative, permanent and low in maintenance that will gain international recognition and put the city on the world's cultural map. With hopes of community engagement, in line with culture and wellbeing, this iconic piece of art hopes to become an important heritage for future generations of Birmingham. The anticipated cost for the project is £2 million. The overall goal of this project is to encourage citizenship and civic pride amongst the city's diverse communities through public art.

The site for Birmingham Big Art Project is the western entrance to the current Eastside City Park, which has been established around the existing Millennium Point building and the future construction of Birmingham's High Speed Railway Station (HS2). It will be a major destination and arrival point in the city and a new 'Curzon Square' will be created over time around the artwork.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE BIRMINGHAM BIG ART FOUNDATION

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2020 which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met.
