1 Summary

We were delighted to receive a significant donation of £25,000 from Deloitte Digital, which together with a further £3,500, has enabled the Stepladder Foundation to run a programme based in Beale High School, Ilford.

This report follows the guidance as outlined in the Charity Commission Guidance document CC15c.

2 Objectives and Activities

Purpose and Aim

The charity's purpose is set out in the CIO Constitution:

- Promotion of Education
- To advance the education of the public in the subject of enriching GCSE and 'A' level studies.
- To advance the education of the pupils by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities not required to be provided by the local education authority for education in schools.

The focus of our work

During the period of this report the focus of the effort was on the delivery of the programme and further developing the working relationship with Deloitte Digital.

2.1 Public Benefit Statement

As defined in the constitution:

For the public benefit to promote the education (including social and physical training) of people under the age of 25 years in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by: providing education (including the study of music or other arts), preparing for entry to any occupation, trade or profession on leaving any educational establishment or, as with any charity in the UK whose aims include advancing education of persons under the age of 25 years, by developing their mental, physical and moral capabilities through leisure time activities.

3 Achievements and Performance in the Year

3.1 Overview

During the period of the report a cohort comprising 30 students recruited from 5 schools in the Ilford area have attended Stepladder sessions and have been supported through the academic year.

Various activities have also taken place including visits to the theatre, Science Museum and a Fitness fun day.

12 mentors from Deloitte are working well with the students.

Bi-weekly meetings have been held with the project team at Deloitte Digital to develop the relationship and monthly meetings have been held with mentors to monitor progress.

4 Structure, Governance and Management

4.1 Governing Document

The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) and was registered on the 2nd May 2014.

4.2 Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The trustees who served during the year were:

- Louise Francis
- Saher Shah
- Melis Baysal
- Anneliese Amoah
- Thea Cooper (appointed 5th June 2023)

The trustees can be in place for up to four years, due to Covid period this is now under review. Trustees meet as a minimum four times a year.

4.3 Trustee Induction and Training

The current trustees are scheduled to receive face to face training in summer 2023 when a new chair has been appointed. This will be in accordance with our trustee code of practice.

The definition and creation of policy and procedure in this area is to be developed.

4.4 Risk Management

There is a risk register and where appropriate, systems or procedures have been established to mitigate the risks the charity faces, notably for Child Protection and Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.

The charity is insured for public liability as the need arises.

4.5 Organisational Structure

The organisation is small. Apart from the trustees there is an Operations Team which for this year comprised the CEO, between 3 and 7 facilitators per session and a part-time administrator.

4.6 Management Committee

The operational management meet monthly to review the performance of the programme and ensure good governance. The Chief Executive has delegated authority for operational matters.

7 Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the Trustees of The Stepladder Foundation (Charity No 1156906)

On the Accounts for the Year Ended 30 September 2022

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity for the year ended 30 September 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
