I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below *~~) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Selection of trustees

The charity's Constitution specifies that the number of trustees shall be not less than three and not more than twelve, providing for new trustees to be selected by the members or trustees. On incorporation and registration of the charity, the six founding members were appointed as the current trustees and mutually agreed service periods, with retirement spread over three general meetings.

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document. The Constitution is the Charitable Incorporated Organisation Association Model which was registered on 15 May 2014 and was subject to revisions approved at a General Meeting on 18th December 2021.

Object of the charity

To advance public education, learning and skills development by the acquisition, restoration, preservation, exhibition and operation of such Lancashire & Yorkshire Railway locomotives, rolling stock, equipment and artefacts, relics, documents and records of historic and academic interest as the charity trustees may from time to time decide.

Description of work in the period

The CIO was formed on 14 May 2014 to take over the work of an unincorporated charity of the same name, registered charity number 1002627.

The CIO has continued to preserve, restore and maintain its locomotives and rolling stock for public operation and education, the activities providing opportunities for learning and skills development for those involved in the work. Subject to the limits of health and safety regulations, preservation work and restoration work in progress is displayed to the public.

In the period to 31st March 2023 the trustees resolved to complete restoration and repairs under contract on Bogie Brake carriage 1474 utilising funds from reserves in addition to donations gratefully received.

Reserves policy

The reserves policy is to retain sufficient funds to meet the ongoing liabilities of the charity together with funds required to further the object of the charity.

The Statement of Financial Activity for the period ended 31 March 2023 shows incoming resources of £35037.91 and resources expended of £32505.58.
