Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 1st July 2023 to 30th June 2024

Charity name: Bristol Choral Society

Charity registration number: 1157699

Objectives and Activities

The objects of Bristol Choral Society are “to educate its members and the public in the Arts and Sciences, and in particular the Art and Science of Choral Music, and to contribute to the cultural life of the community, by the presentation of choral concerts and other activities”.

Bristol Choral Society provides public benefit: through its concerts, all of which are open to the public, and at a wide range of prices, including significantly reduced rate tickets for under 26s; through its 'Come & Sing' events which enable members of the public to attend a day workshop on a specific choral work with the choir's professional director of music; through its Choral Scholarship scheme, which provides financial support and training for aspiring professional singers; through its apprenticeship scheme which offers teenagers experience of and training in choral singing, without charge or audition; and through its Schools outreach programme, which has trained hundreds of local school children, and school staff, from disadvantaged areas, and given them a chance to give a public performance.

Achievements and Performance

During 2023/2024 the Society promoted four concerts:

18 November 2023	Duruflé: Messe cum Jubilo, Prélude et Fugue and Requiem	Clifton Cathedral
16 December 2023	Handel: Messiah	Bristol Beacon
16 March 2024	Verdi: Requiem	Bristol Beacon
29 June 2024	Vaughan Williams: Serenade to Music; Finzi: Dies Natalis; Howells: Hymnus Paradisi	Bristol Beacon

This performance of Handel's Messiah was the first major choral work performed in the newly-opened Bristol Beacon to an audience of 1,103. Audience sizes for the other three concerts were 315 (Duruflé), 1011 (Verdi) and 466 (Howells etc.).

We were pleased to welcome 25 members of other Bristol-based auditioned choirs as guest singers for the Verdi Requiem. The choir was also delighted to host a return visit of members of the Hannoversche Oratorienchor to join in the summer concert. The choir is one of the oldest musical societies in Germany, and the exchange between it and BCS stretches back several decades, being one element of the Bristol-Hannover civic twinning.

We hosted two public 'Come & Sing' events:

16 September 2023 Handel: Messiah

3 February 2024 Opera Choruses

These were both sold to capacity, involving over 110 singers on both occasions.

Following the awards to the choir and its music director, Hilary Campbell, made by the Royal Philharmonic Society, the choir was invited in June 2023 to give the première of a new RPS commission to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Ralph Vaughan Williams. The work, A Memory of the Ocean, by Grace Evangeline Mason, was performed at the fourth concert of the season on 24 June 2023. This work was then recorded by the choir for the Delphian CD label on 29-30 September 2023, along with other works of 20th century English choral music.

We were unable to recruit to our choral scholarship scheme for this year, but made one appointment towards the end of the year in respect of the coming year. We continued to provide free tickets to our concerts to refugees and their hosts. Tickets for U26s were available at all concerts for £5.00.

Financial Review

Summary

In 2023/2024 the choir was finally able to return to the Bristol Beacon after its major refurbishment. Three of its four concerts were held here. Substantially larger audiences meant that the overall concert deficit for the year improved significantly over the previous year, from approximately -£25.5k to -£9,954, almost exactly as budgeted.

To prepare for these concerts, the choir had 41 rehearsals funded by member subscriptions, as were all the basic running costs of the choir. Running costs generated a small surplus of £320.

Our public 'Come & Sing' events returned to their pre-pandemic levels of popularity, generating a healthy surplus of £1,707, and various smaller fundraising efforts raised another £652. The choir was also grateful for the support of 18 patrons, friends and benefactors, which together with associated Gift Aid generated £3,894 for general funds. Bank interest continued to be a significant source of income as a result of higher interest rates, generating £2,490.

The overall effect was to generate a deficit on regular activities of -£1,758.

The expenditure of £23k on a CD recording of the RPS commissioned work by Grace Evangeline Mason, A Memory of the Ocean, was approved at the 2022 AGM. The recording took place in late September and has to date cost £20,679. This has been offset by 31 donations specifically towards this project, resulting in a net expenditure from reserves of £17,680, and total year-end deficit of -£19,712. Reserves have now been reduced to an appropriate level.

Concert income & expenditure

The Duruflé concert was designed to be a low-cost event, with small professional forces and in-house ticketing. It was budgeted to be neutral, but made a small deficit of -£1,214 on account of reduced ticket sales and increased costs, primarily music hire charges and some additional professional musicians. The Messiah exceeded expectations, and in spite of larger-than-expected costs of publicity, orchestra, box office charges and stewarding, made a substantial surplus of £4,467. The Verdi Requiem was our most expensive concert, costing £22,459 to promote. But it was also very successful, making only a small deficit -£2,612, which was also better than expected. However, the RVW/Finzi/Howells concert made a substantial loss of -£10,595, considerably worse than expected. All sorts of factors combined to generate this outcome, including a reduced audience income, the high cost of orchestral scores, additional professional musicians, the need to hire an organ and increased stewarding costs. These were offset to some extent by opting for a smaller orchestral setting.

The overall concert ticket income was £55,103 (2023: £19,786) against total costs of £65,057 (2023: £45,572) producing a total concert deficit of -£9,957 (2023: -£25,577).

Subscription income and running costs

Membership of the choir continued to grow slightly compared with the previous year from 131 to 134. This led to an increase in total subscription income to £26,550. With associated Gift Aid this generated £31,818, a positive variance to budget of £955. Basic running costs came in at £31,498, £1,087 more than budgeted. This was caused mainly by the increased number of rehearsals required by an ambitious programme, a larger number of auditions, and the unexpected cost of a music licence renewal. These increases were offset by rent reductions for our rehearsal venue, on account of lighting and heating failures. Overall, the small surplus on running costs of £320 was in line with budget.

Other income

Overall, other income came in at £7,751, somewhat less than budgeted. The higher levels of donations to general funds seen in the previous year were not sustained, as some were directed specifically towards the recording project. However, total donations, with associated Gift Aid, came to £6,892, only a little less than in the previous year. The two Come & Sing events made surpluses of £986 and £722 respectively; with other smaller fundraising projects raising sums including £302 (Music 4 Sale) and £125 (members' raffle). The purchase and hire of music scores for performances continued to be popular and an attempt is made to pass on this music to members at cost. Instead of a small surplus, this year it made a small deficit of -£135, which represents a 4% pricing error. Bank interest rates remain high, generating £2,490 on our reserves.

CD Recording Project

The AGM in 2022 approved expenditure of up to £23,000 recording Grace Evangeline Mason's A Memory of the Ocean, along with associated works. The bulk of this expenditure (£20,679) has fallen into this year, which offset by specific donations of £2,998 produced a net cost to date of £17,680. Costs in the coming year will include finalising the editing and a launch event.

Looking ahead

This year was always going to be rather experimental as the financial implications of promoting concerts in the new Bristol Beacon became clear. The underlying picture is sound, as it shows that the basic model of funding the choir running costs through subscriptions, and keeping concert deficits to a level which can be met by donations, fundraising and other sources of income is broadly workable. However, the year also shows that a single concert can have a major impact on choir finances, and care needs to be taken to ensure a range of programming which draws sufficiently large audiences.

Next year, four concerts will be promoted as usual, as well as two Come & Sing events. There will be a choir weekend away at Ammerdown, and a tour to Riga. The second concert will include an outreach element; the Choral Scholar scheme and other programmes to support young singers will be continued and developed as the opportunities arise.

Notes

1. Accounting policies

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions applicable to small companies subject to the small companies regime and in accordance with FRS102 SORP. Income and expenditure are accounted for in the period to which they relate, except for donations and income from Friends and Patrons, which are recognised in the period of receipt.

2. Policy on reserves

Bristol Choral Society aims to keep 75% of one year's costs in reserve (approx. £75k). Over the years the committee has retained additional reserves to cover the potential reduction in revenue during the prolonged closure of our main performance venue, Bristol Beacon, for refurbishment. With the Bristol Beacon now open, and additional expenditure on the CD recording project, reserves are now at the desired level.

3. Trustees' (Committee members') expenses and remuneration

No committee member received any remuneration directly from the Society. Trustees are reimbursed for payments they make on the Society's behalf and also for expenses that they incur when acting on the Society's behalf.

4. Movement of funds

Designated piano replacement fund:

This fund is as in 2020/2021 and contains the balance after the disposal of one piano (-£1,079) and the gain of a new piano which was donated and valued at £2,500.

Outreach Restricted Fund:

This represents money from grants, donations and net income from Outreach concerts that is set aside specifically for Outreach work with children. Due to the slow recovery from the Covid pandemic no outreach projects were possible during 2022/2023.

Choral Scholars Restricted Fund:

This was established in 2016-17 to hold revenues collected specifically to fund Choral Scholars. Donations were received in-year to cover the cost of the one Choral Scholar, and at the end of the 2022/2023 season the fund stands at £885 as it had the previous year. Fundraising will be required to ensure the ability to support up to 4 scholars in the next season.

Choir Tours Restricted Fund:

At the close of last year, a substantial amount was held in restricted funds towards two tours and a choir weekend. These were spent within the year reducing the overall value of the fund to £250 as planned.

New Music Fund:

Bristol Choral Society won a Making Music award for new music in November for 2021 for our Carol Competition from the previous season. The prize was a donation of £500 which was to be used by the society for future new music projects. As planned, this was used to offset the costs of performing a piece commissioned by the RPS which the society premiered in summer 2023.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

---

We have examined the statement of financial activities for the period 1 July 2023 to 30 June 2024.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The charity's members consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

This report is made to you in accordance with the terms of our engagement and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the trustees, for our work or for this report.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

1. which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act and the Regulations have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
