Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Resolution through committee

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Although RED-AID shares the same postal address it is to be noted that REDWOOD SCHOOL and RED-AID (charity no 1157908) are two organisations independent of each other and have no control or governance upon each other.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance, enhance and promote the needs of children and young people with Special Educational needs and their families and carers in such ways as the charity trustees think fit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In planning our activities, the Trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular to its supplementary public benefit guidance.

Throughout the 2019 /20 year the Charity has continued to raise money to make donations to the school and other individuals.

Activities undertaken to raise funds include:

- Staff sponsored run
- Halloween / Valentines discos
- External donation from the Turf Tavern

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Board will consider applications requesting assistance / funding taking into account each individual application's compliance with our constitution objects; cost of application against benefit to recipient and the ability to fund the application in full or part. In determining the suitability of an application consideration will also be given to the possibility of applying to other Charities to fully or part fund the request or for it to be looked at as a project for targeted fundraising activities. We will assess each individual request so that every application is treated equally, fairly and consistently to ensure the most appropriate use of the charity's funds in accordance with our own constitution and the best practice guidance of the Charity Commission.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In order to raise funds and provide a safe environment for social interactions for parents and students we organised three family disco events one for Halloween and one for Valentines One for Christmas all of which were well attended.

Awards made this year were:

No awards were made this year

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We have decided not to have a policy on reserves at this time but will review each year and implement a policy when appropriate to do so.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Halloween / valentines / Christmas discos – These have been well received over the years we have been organising them and provide parents / carers with a safe environment to socialise with others in a similar situation. This also provides support and reduces isolation which is often felt by these families.
