Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document.

The objects of the charity are to advance the education of the general public by carrying out research into, and maintaining records of, military and civilian airfields and related infrastructure, both current and historic, anywhere in the world.

The Trustees consider that the charity's objectives are for the public benefit and its activities, achievements and performance are consistent with its objectives having had regard to Charity Commission guidance.

In furtherance of the charity's objectives, the Trustees may:

- acquire and display exhibits and artefacts, and make the same available for research to interested parties;
- carry out research in relation to such airfields and related infrastructure for the purpose of education of the public by dissemination of the useful results of the research;
- provide educational facilities and assistance to young people by establishing contacts with educational institutions, youth clubs, societies etc.; and
- cause to be written and printed or otherwise reproduce and circulate, gratuitously or otherwise, such papers, periodicals, pamphlets or other documents or films or recorded tapes (whether audio or visual or both) and to store and make available such materials to the public.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the year.

The charity has a number of broad categories of activity: pure research; applied research; education/outreach; and promoting the charity. It achieves these by the quarterly publication of the magazine Airfield Review; maintenance and expansion of the Archive; maintenance of the internet web site; visits to airfield-related locations; stands at major aviation-related venues; and public displays and talks. Continuing COVID restrictions greatly inhibited ARG's public activities but it was possible to attend Road Shows twice at Newark.

The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit.

The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the year.

ARG promotes itself and its charitable activities to the broad public in two principal ways: internet and participation in aviation-related events. The web-site sets out the full range of our activities and displays examples of the research documents available.

However, perhaps the highlight of the year was the first of our combined AGM and Members' Day on 10 October 2021. It is intended that such a day is arranged each year to encourage attendance at the AGM, and also to enable like-minded members to meet in a social setting. The day is offered completely free-of-charge to full members of the Group and forms one of their member benefits.

Eighteen members and five trustees met at the former RAF Alconbury for a full day programme beginning with an informative presentation about the airfield and then the actual AGM business meeting. Following lunch, attendees were split into two groups for coach tours and visits to remaining Cold War structures extant on the airfield including 'Dragon Mountain', a hardened avionics maintenance facility, the significance of which is demonstrated by its being Listed Grade I by Historic England. Other structures were viewed from the coach tour and the opportunity was taken to show members around the nearly-finished Archives facility, Building 1008. The day was successful with many attendees expressing their appreciation to the organisers and having an enjoyable day. The day also produced some longer-term benefits as following the visit to the Archive, a small number of members expressed interest in volunteering to help run or contribute to the Archive

The previous day, ARG and its landlord had participated in English Heritage's 'National Heritage Day', including guided tours of Dragon Mountain. Separately ARG gave a guided tour to the USAF Alconbury Boy Scout troop of the Grade II Listed Second World War Watch office.

Considerable volunteer effort continued to be expended on answering enquiries from the public. The year closed with a membership of 300, a modest decrease on 2020 (320). In the face of the COVID pandemic and its effects upon members and the activities of the ARG, this is indeed a heartening number.

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2021

One major achievement was the effective completion of the refurbishment of Building 1008 at Alconbury, the charity's new location, on which our landlord has agreed a five-year lease. This gives us a degree of certainty which has been lacking in the past and means that some expenditure can be justified to produce a building which will be used as the Archive and opened to the public

The difference the charity's performance during the year has made to the beneficiaries of the charity.

Airfield Research Group does not specify classes of people to qualify as "beneficiaries". We are open to provide information to anybody who asks and a description of our benefit to wider society (which is the same as "beneficiaries") follows below.

The degree to which the achievements and performance during the year have benefited wider society.

The Group continues to receive enquiries from the internet or previous contacts, each of which is answered by a volunteer. The range of enquirers and subjects remains extremely broad, including: museums and special interest groups, mainly in the UK but also including in the USA, given RAF Alconbury's long association with the United States Air Force; planning authorities and applicants; also, increasingly, members of the public researching their relatives' military service. The Group offers to give presentations and displays to schools and local societies. Answers are drawn from documents, photographs, plans etc. in the Archive and from the extensive knowledge of volunteers. The website forum generates significant levels of traffic and is a source of new material and knowledge.

ARG is a founding member of the Alconbury Weald Heritage Committee based at Alconbury Weald, which is in partnership with Cambridge County Council, Huntingdon District Council and developer Urban & Civic plc. to advise on the 20th century military architecture and history of the former airbase and to assist with decisions for the future use of the property, which will enhance the knowledge of both residents of the new development and the surrounding community. ARG has also joined Military Aviation Heritage Networks to broaden public awareness of our existence and facilities.

Structure, governance and management of the charity

The methods used to recruit and appoint new charity trustees.

The appointment of Trustees is as set out in the Articles of Association. At the first Annual General Meeting, all the Trustees retired from office and were re-elected. At each subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the Trustees (or the nearest number thereto) must retire from office. A retiring Trustee is eligible for re-election by the members.

The policies and procedures for the induction and training of trustees.

New Trustees are briefed informally on their legal obligations under charity and company law, the content of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, decision making processes, and recent financial performance of the charity.

The charity's organisational structure.

Airfield Research Group Ltd is a company limited by guarantee governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. It is registered as a charity with the Charity Commission. Anyone can become a member of the company. At the end of 2021 there were 300 members who each undertake to contribute an amount not exceeding £10 in the event of a winding up or a dissolution of the charity. A Board of Trustees of not fewer than 3 administers the charity, supported by Officers who undertake specific roles, such as Archive, Road Shows, Membership and Editor of Airfield Review.

Financial review

The charity's financial position at the end of the year ended 31 December 2021

The financial position of the charity at 31 December 2021 and comparatives for the prior period, as more fully detailed in the accounts, can be summarised as follows:-

	2021 £	2020 £
Net income/(expenditure)	248	(1,890)
Unrestricted Revenue Funds available for the general purposes of the charity	33,246	32,998
Total Funds	33,246	32,998

Airfield Research Group Ltd

Company Registration Number - 08931493

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2021

Financial review of the position at the reporting date, 31 December 2021 .

The Statement of Financial Activities on Page 11 shows income from regular sources of £27,058 (prior year £16,278). Total expenditure for the year was £26,810 (prior year £18,168) giving net surplus of £248, compared to prior year net deficit of £1,890. In addition, we acquired further archives for £35. Detailed breakdown of income and expenditure is shown on pages 24-27. Members' subscriptions went down from £11,970 to £9,651. Income includes £1,452 of Gift Aid received during the year which was claimed on 2020 donations. This amount is included partly within Donations and partly within Members' subscriptions as donations, as appropriate.

Out of total expenditure of £26,810 the sum of £12,560 relates to consultancy fees incurred in the provision of consultancy income of £15,795. The remaining costs of £14,250 represent a reduction of £3,918 as 2020 accounts included one-off expenditure on Archive building. All other costs were broadly in line with prior year.

Total funds at year end were £33,246 (prior year £32,998).

Overall, the Trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been adequate. However, for as long as the charity is overwhelmingly dependent for income upon membership subscriptions, the outcome of surplus/loss will remain finely balanced.

For 2022, your Trustees are anticipating a modest loss on day-to-day running costs but additionally we aim to spend some of the donations received in this and previous years on charitable activities, such as the digitisation of rare maps and drawings; and the publication of a book on airfield buildings. Details of the latter will be publicised on our website and in Airfield Review at an appropriate time.

With the additional costs incurred in maintaining Building 1008, the Trustees recognise that this is a precarious existence which is not sustainable in the longer-term. Accordingly, the Board is actively seeking to increase membership and is seeking additional sources of income, not excluding grants, as well as remunerated consultancy work for commercial organisations, drawing upon extensive knowledge held by Trustees personally and the vast archives of often unique archival material.

Recent events

With the – hopefully final - easing of COVID restrictions and the reticence of members and the public to attend public events, ARG is beginning to resume its previous pattern of Road Shows and visits

Policies on reserves.

The Trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. The review considered the nature of the charity's anticipated income and expenditure streams and the need to match variable income with any fixed commitments.

The unrestricted reserves of the Charity at the 31st of December 2021 amounted to £33,246 and are considered sufficient to meet the charity's ongoing unrestricted charitable expenditure as well as the longer term financing needs of the charity

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The Board of Trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations.

Statement of the Directors Trustees's Responsibilities

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the SORP 2005, in view of the fact that the SORP 2005 has been withdrawn, the Trustees determined to interpret this responsibility as requiring them to follow current best practice and prepare the accounts according to the FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015 (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016) .

In particular, the Companies Act 2006 and charity law require the Board of Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to :-

- to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).
- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 and comply with regulations made under the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the statutory responsibility of the Independent Examiner in relation to the Trustees' report is limited to examining the report and ensuring that , on the face of the report, there are no material inconsistencies with the figures disclosed in the financial statements.

Method of preparation of accounts - Small company provisions

The financial statements are set out on pages 11 to 26.

The financial statements have been prepared implementing the FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015 (as amended by the Bulletin issued in October 2019) and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2019)

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006. applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

Report of the Independent Accountant to the Trustees of the charitable company on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2021

We report on the financial statements of Airfield Research Group Ltd for the year ended 31 December 2021, as set out on pages 11 to 26, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Income and Expenditure Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and the Financial Reporting Standard 102, and the accounts have been prepared in accordance with FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) published by the Charity Commission in England & Wales (CCEW) , effective January 2019, (The SORP), under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 16, which framework constitutes the applicable United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the accountant

As described on page 8, the charitable company's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the memorandum and articles of the charity for the conducting of an audit, and that the accounts do not require an audit in accordance with Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and that no member or members have requested an audit pursuant to Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

As the Charity's annual income was over £25,000, the Trustees must also arrange for an independent person to carry out either an audit or an independent examination of the accounts. The Trustees elected to have an independent examination instead of an audit.

Our responsibility is to prepare accounts upon the basis of the information supplied to us, without conducting any formal scrutiny.

Dorota Haden of Haden Chartered Accountants has been appointed by the Trustees to carry out an Independent Examination in accordance with Charity Commission's Directions and Guidance. Independent Examination is subject to a separate report by the Examiner.

1 Accounting policies

Policies relating to the production of the accounts.

Basis of preparation and accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared on the accruals basis, under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102 and FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) published by the Charity Commission in England & Wales (CCEW), effective January 2019, (The SORP), and in accordance with all applicable law in the charity's jurisdiction of registration.

Risks and future assumptions

Given the charity's small size, it does not have a formal risk policy, though the Trustees are mindful of the strategic business and operational risks to which the charity might be exposed. The charity is a public benefit entity.

Policies relating to categories of income and income recognition.

Nature of income

Gross income represents the value, net of value added tax and discounts, of goods provided to customers and work carried out in respect of services provided to customers.

Categories of Income

Income is categorised as income from exchange transactions (contract income) and income from non-exchange transactions (gifts), investment income and other income.

Income from exchange transactions is received by the charity for goods or services supplied under contract or where entitlement is subject to fulfilling performance related conditions. The income the charity receives is approximately equal in value to the goods or services supplied by the charity to the purchaser.

Income from a non-exchange transaction is where the charity receives value from the donor without providing equal value in exchange, and includes donations of money, goods and services freely given without giving equal value in exchange.

Income recognition

Income, whether from exchange or non exchange transactions, is recognised in the statement of financial activities (SOFA) on a receivable basis, when a transaction or other event results in an increase in the charity's assets or a reduction in its liabilities and only when the charity has legal entitlement, the income is probable and can be measured reliably.

Income subject to terms and conditions which must be met before the charity is entitled to the resources is not recognised until the conditions have been met.

All income is accounted for gross, before deducting any related fees or costs.

Airfield Research Group Ltd

Accounting for deferred income and income received in advance

Where terms and conditions relating to income have not been met or uncertainty exists as to whether the charity can meet any terms or conditions otherwise within its control, income is not recognised but is deferred as a liability until it is probable that the terms or conditions imposed can be met.

Any grant that is subject to performance-related conditions received in advance of delivering the goods and services required by that condition, or is subject to unmet conditions wholly outside the control of the recipient charity, is accounted for as a liability and shown on the balance sheet as deferred income. Deferred income is released to income in the reporting period in which the performance-related or other conditions that limit recognition are met.

When income from a grant or donation has not been recognised due to the conditions applying to the gift not being wholly within the control of the recipient charity, it is disclosed as a contingent asset if receipt of the grant or donation is probable once those conditions are met.

Where time related conditions are imposed or implied by a funder, then the income is apportioned to the time periods concerned, and, where applicable, is accounted for as a liability and shown on the balance sheet as deferred income. When grants are received in advance of the expenditure on the activity funded by them, but there are no specific time related conditions, then the income is not deferred.

Any condition that allows for the recovery by the donor of any unexpended part of a grant does not prevent recognition of the income concerned, but a liability to any repayment is recognised when repayment becomes probable.

Income from legacies

Income from legacies is recognised when the charity has sufficient evidence that a gift has been left to them, that where required, probate has been granted, the executor is satisfied that the property in question will not be required to satisfy claims in the estate, that it is probable that the amount will be received by the charity, and the amount to be received can be estimated with sufficient accuracy, and that any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Where a payment is received from an estate or is notified as receivable by the executors after the reporting date and before the accounts are authorised for issue but it is clear that the payment had been agreed by the executors prior to the end of the reporting period, then the amount concerned is treated as an adjusting event and accrued as income in the accounting period if receipt is probable.

Where the charity has established entitlement to a legacy but there is uncertainty as to the amount of the payment, details of the legacy are disclosed as a contingent asset until the criteria for income recognition are met. Where a legacy is subject to the interest of a life tenant, the legacy is not recognised as income until the death of the life tenant.

If it is doubtful that full settlement of a legacy debtor will be received, then an adjustment is made to reduce the amount of the legacy debtor and legacy income rather than charging the adjustment as expenditure in the Statement of Financial Activities

Donated goods, facilities and services

Donated fixed assets are recognised at the current fair value. All such donations are recognised as donation income, and debited to fixed assets. However, see exception discussed under heading "Heritage Assets" below.

Donated goods that are not fixed assets are accounted for at a fair value, unless it is impractical to reliably measure the value of the donated items.

In the absence of any direct evidence of fair value of donated goods, then a value is derived from the cost of the item to the donor or, in the case of goods that are expected to be sold, the estimated resale value after deducting any anticipated costs of sales.

If it is impracticable to measure the fair value of goods donated for resale, or the costs of valuation outweigh the benefits, the donated goods are recognised as income when sold, with an equivalent amount being recognised as an expense.

The costs of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those goods upon receipt. When the goods are distributed freely or for a nominal consideration, then the carrying amount is adjusted at the time of sale, to the value at the point of distribution and the adjustment is shown as a cost of donations made.

The carrying amount of any stock held for distribution is assessed for impairment at the reporting date. All donated goods are recognised as donation income, and debited to trading stock. When trading stock is subsequently sold, or appropriated to meet an expense, then the carrying value of the stock is recognised as an expense. In accordance with the SORP, goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries, or for consumption by the charity are included in 'legacies and donations'. Goods donated for resale are included in 'Income from other trading activities'

The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt. If the goods held are to be distributed freely or for a nominal consideration, then the carrying amount is subsequently adjusted to reflect the lower of deemed cost adjusted for any loss of service potential and replacement cost. Replacement cost is the economic cost incurred if the charity was to replace the service potential of the donated goods at its own expense in the most economic manner.

Donated services and facilities (including seconded staff and use of property) are included in the accounts on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity.

All donated services and facilities are recognised as donation income when received, (provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably) and recognised as an expense with an equivalent value.

Membership subscriptions

The income and any associated Gift Aid or other tax refund from a membership subscription received by the charity in the nature of a gift, is accounted for on the same basis as a donation.

The income from a membership subscription received by the charity where the subscription purchases the right to services or benefits is recognised as income from charitable activities.

Policies relating to expenditure on goods and services provided to the charity.

Recognition of liabilities and expenditure

A liability, and the related expenditure, is recognised when a legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of a past event, and when it is more likely than not that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and when the amount of the obligation can be measured or reliably estimated..

Liabilities arising from future funding commitments and constructive obligations, including performance related grants, where the timing or the amount of the future expenditure required to settle the obligation are uncertain, give rise to a provision in the accounts, which is reviewed at the accounting year end. The provision is increased to reflect any increases in liabilities, and is decreased by the utilisation of any provision within the period, and reversed if any provision is no longer required. These movements are charged or credited to the respective funds and activities to which the provision relates.

Allocating costs to activities

Direct costs that are specifically related to an activity are allocated to that activity. Shared direct costs and support costs are apportioned between activities only if material. General administration expenses are not apportioned to activities.

Policies relating to assets, liabilities and provisions and other matters.

Heritage assets

Since its recognition as a charitable company, the charity has held an archive of books and other research material. The vast majority of items in the archive were donated to the predecessor organisations over many years. The collection in existence at the date of its transfer to the charity is not recognised in the Balance Sheet as cost information is not readily available, but the Trustees intend to obtain valuations for these items once they have been catalogued. The Charity's management policy in this respect is summarised in note 9. Individual heritage assets acquired post 21 July 2014 costing £50 or greater will be capitalised but not depreciated in view of the nature of the archive.

The two predecessor bodies transferred the archive materials referred to in the Trustees' Report to Airfield Research Group Limited at the point it was registered as a charity. No value is however recognised in respect of the collection in existence at the date of transfer to the charity, as explained above. This collection is administered by the Trustees and is kept at Alconbury Weald, located on part of the former RAF Alconbury.

It is the Trustees' expectation that funding for further acquisitions will come principally from membership subscriptions and donations. The charity will continue to dispose of donated goods (principally surplus books) to help fund its operations.

Debtors

Debtors are measured at their recoverable amounts at the balance sheet date.

Creditors and provisions

Liabilities are recognised on the accruals basis in accordance with normal accounting policies, modified where necessary in accordance with the guidance given in the SORP.

2 Liability to taxation

The Trustees consider that the charity satisfies the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 of the Finance Act 2010 for UK corporation tax purposes. Accordingly, the Charity is potentially exempt from taxation in respect of income or capital gains received within categories covered by chapter 3 part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, to the extent that such income or gains are applied exclusively on the specific charitable objects of the charity and for no other purpose. Value Added Tax is not recoverable by the charity, and is therefore included in the relevant costs in the Statement of Financial Activities.

3 Winding up or dissolution of the charity

If upon winding up or dissolution of the charity there remain any assets, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, the assets represented by the accumulated fund shall be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies having similar objects to the charity.

4 The contribution of volunteers

Airfield Research Group Ltd is an exclusively volunteer organisation, with no employed staff. It is therefore crucially dependent upon the dedication, hard work and goodwill of a limited number of volunteers to deliver its objectives and activities. Also, the content of the flagship Airfield Review comes entirely from contributions by volunteer members of the Group. More volunteers would enable ARG to carry out more pro-active presentational work and accelerate cataloguing of the Archive.

No employees received emoluments (excluding pension costs) in excess of £60,000 per annum.

5 Defined contribution pension schemes

The Charity does not operate a pension scheme.

Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document.

The objects of the charity are to advance the education of the general public by carrying out research into, and maintaining records of, military and civilian airfields and related infrastructure, both current and historic, anywhere in the world.

The Trustees consider that the charity's objectives are for the public benefit and its activities, achievements and performance are consistent with its objectives having had regard to Charity Commission guidance.

In furtherance of the charity's objectives, the Trustees may:

- acquire and display exhibits and artefacts, and make the same available for research to interested parties;
- carry out research in relation to such airfields and related infrastructure for the purpose of education of the public by dissemination of the useful results of the research;
- provide educational facilities and assistance to young people by establishing contacts with educational institutions, youth clubs, societies etc.; and
- cause to be written and printed or otherwise reproduce and circulate, gratuitously or otherwise, such papers, periodicals, pamphlets or other documents or films or recorded tapes (whether audio or visual or both) and to store and make available such materials to the public.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the year.

The charity has a number of broad categories of activity: pure research; applied research; education/outreach; and promoting the charity. It achieves these by the quarterly publication of the magazine Airfield Review; maintenance and expansion of the Archive; maintenance of the internet web site; visits to airfield-related locations; stands at major aviation-related venues; and public displays and talks. Continuing COVID restrictions greatly inhibited ARG's public activities but it was possible to attend Road Shows twice at Newark.

The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit.

The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the year.

ARG promotes itself and its charitable activities to the broad public in two principal ways: internet and participation in aviation-related events. The web-site sets out the full range of our activities and displays examples of the research documents available.

However, perhaps the highlight of the year was the first of our combined AGM and Members' Day on 10 October 2021. It is intended that such a day is arranged each year to encourage attendance at the AGM, and also to enable like-minded members to meet in a social setting. The day is offered completely free-of-charge to full members of the Group and forms one of their member benefits.

Eighteen members and five trustees met at the former RAF Alconbury for a full day programme beginning with an informative presentation about the airfield and then the actual AGM business meeting. Following lunch, attendees were split into two groups for coach tours and visits to remaining Cold War structures extant on the airfield including 'Dragon Mountain', a hardened avionics maintenance facility, the significance of which is demonstrated by its being Listed Grade I by Historic England. Other structures were viewed from the coach tour and the opportunity was taken to show members around the nearly-finished Archives facility, Building 1008. The day was successful with many attendees expressing their appreciation to the organisers and having an enjoyable day. The day also produced some longer-term benefits as following the visit to the Archive, a small number of members expressed interest in volunteering to help run or contribute to the Archive

The previous day, ARG and its landlord had participated in English Heritage's 'National Heritage Day', including guided tours of Dragon Mountain. Separately ARG gave a guided tour to the USAF Alconbury Boy Scout troop of the Grade II Listed Second World War Watch office.

Considerable volunteer effort continued to be expended on answering enquiries from the public. The year closed with a membership of 300, a modest decrease on 2020 (320). In the face of the COVID pandemic and its effects upon members and the activities of the ARG, this is indeed a heartening number.

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2021

One major achievement was the effective completion of the refurbishment of Building 1008 at Alconbury, the charity's new location, on which our landlord has agreed a five-year lease. This gives us a degree of certainty which has been lacking in the past and means that some expenditure can be justified to produce a building which will be used as the Archive and opened to the public

The difference the charity's performance during the year has made to the beneficiaries of the charity.

Airfield Research Group does not specify classes of people to qualify as "beneficiaries". We are open to provide information to anybody who asks and a description of our benefit to wider society (which is the same as "beneficiaries") follows below.

The degree to which the achievements and performance during the year have benefited wider society.

The Group continues to receive enquiries from the internet or previous contacts, each of which is answered by a volunteer. The range of enquirers and subjects remains extremely broad, including: museums and special interest groups, mainly in the UK but also including in the USA, given RAF Alconbury's long association with the United States Air Force; planning authorities and applicants; also, increasingly, members of the public researching their relatives' military service. The Group offers to give presentations and displays to schools and local societies. Answers are drawn from documents, photographs, plans etc. in the Archive and from the extensive knowledge of volunteers. The website forum generates significant levels of traffic and is a source of new material and knowledge.

ARG is a founding member of the Alconbury Weald Heritage Committee based at Alconbury Weald, which is in partnership with Cambridge County Council, Huntingdon District Council and developer Urban & Civic plc. to advise on the 20th century military architecture and history of the former airbase and to assist with decisions for the future use of the property, which will enhance the knowledge of both residents of the new development and the surrounding community. ARG has also joined Military Aviation Heritage Networks to broaden public awareness of our existence and facilities.

Structure, governance and management of the charity

The methods used to recruit and appoint new charity trustees.

The appointment of Trustees is as set out in the Articles of Association. At the first Annual General Meeting, all the Trustees retired from office and were re-elected. At each subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the Trustees (or the nearest number thereto) must retire from office. A retiring Trustee is eligible for re-election by the members.

The policies and procedures for the induction and training of trustees.

New Trustees are briefed informally on their legal obligations under charity and company law, the content of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, decision making processes, and recent financial performance of the charity.

The charity's organisational structure.

Airfield Research Group Ltd is a company limited by guarantee governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. It is registered as a charity with the Charity Commission. Anyone can become a member of the company. At the end of 2021 there were 300 members who each undertake to contribute an amount not exceeding £10 in the event of a winding up or a dissolution of the charity. A Board of Trustees of not fewer than 3 administers the charity, supported by Officers who undertake specific roles, such as Archive, Road Shows, Membership and Editor of Airfield Review.

The charity's financial position at the end of the year ended 31 December 2021

The financial position of the charity at 31 December 2021 and comparatives for the prior period, as more fully detailed in the accounts, can be summarised as follows:-

	2021 £	2020 £
Net income/(expenditure)	248	(1,890)
Unrestricted Revenue Funds available for the general purposes of the charity	33,246	32,998
Total Funds	33,246	32,998

Airfield Research Group Ltd

Company Registration Number - 08931493

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2021

Financial review of the position at the reporting date, 31 December 2021 .

The Statement of Financial Activities on Page 11 shows income from regular sources of £27,058 (prior year £16,278). Total expenditure for the year was £26,810 (prior year £18,168) giving net surplus of £248, compared to prior year net deficit of £1,890. In addition, we acquired further archives for £35. Detailed breakdown of income and expenditure is shown on pages 24-27. Members' subscriptions went down from £11,970 to £9,651. Income includes £1,452 of Gift Aid received during the year which was claimed on 2020 donations. This amount is included partly within Donations and partly within Members' subscriptions as donations, as appropriate.

Out of total expenditure of £26,810 the sum of £12,560 relates to consultancy fees incurred in the provision of consultancy income of £15,795. The remaining costs of £14,250 represent a reduction of £3,918 as 2020 accounts included one-off expenditure on Archive building. All other costs were broadly in line with prior year.

Total funds at year end were £33,246 (prior year £32,998).

Overall, the Trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been adequate. However, for as long as the charity is overwhelmingly dependent for income upon membership subscriptions, the outcome of surplus/loss will remain finely balanced.

For 2022, your Trustees are anticipating a modest loss on day-to-day running costs but additionally we aim to spend some of the donations received in this and previous years on charitable activities, such as the digitisation of rare maps and drawings; and the publication of a book on airfield buildings. Details of the latter will be publicised on our website and in Airfield Review at an appropriate time.

With the additional costs incurred in maintaining Building 1008, the Trustees recognise that this is a precarious existence which is not sustainable in the longer-term. Accordingly, the Board is actively seeking to increase membership and is seeking additional sources of income, not excluding grants, as well as remunerated consultancy work for commercial organisations, drawing upon extensive knowledge held by Trustees personally and the vast archives of often unique archival material.

Recent events

With the – hopefully final - easing of COVID restrictions and the reticence of members and the public to attend public events, ARG is beginning to resume its previous pattern of Road Shows and visits

Policies on reserves.

The Trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. The review considered the nature of the charity's anticipated income and expenditure streams and the need to match variable income with any fixed commitments.

The unrestricted reserves of the Charity at the 31st of December 2021 amounted to £33,246 and are considered sufficient to meet the charity's ongoing unrestricted charitable expenditure as well as the longer term financing needs of the charity

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The Board of Trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations.

Statement of the Directors Trustees's Responsibilities

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the SORP 2005, in view of the fact that the SORP 2005 has been withdrawn, the Trustees determined to interpret this responsibility as requiring them to follow current best practice and prepare the accounts according to the FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015 (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016) .

In particular, the Companies Act 2006 and charity law require the Board of Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to :-

- to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).
- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 and comply with regulations made under the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the statutory responsibility of the Independent Examiner in relation to the Trustees' report is limited to examining the report and ensuring that , on the face of the report, there are no material inconsistencies with the figures disclosed in the financial statements.

Method of preparation of accounts - Small company provisions

The financial statements are set out on pages 11 to 26.

The financial statements have been prepared implementing the FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015 (as amended by the Bulletin issued in October 2019) and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2019)

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006. applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

Report of the Independent Accountant to the Trustees of the charitable company on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2021

We report on the financial statements of Airfield Research Group Ltd for the year ended 31 December 2021, as set out on pages 11 to 26, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Income and Expenditure Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and the Financial Reporting Standard 102, and the accounts have been prepared in accordance with FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) published by the Charity Commission in England & Wales (CCEW) , effective January 2019, (The SORP), under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 16, which framework constitutes the applicable United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the accountant

As described on page 8, the charitable company's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the memorandum and articles of the charity for the conducting of an audit, and that the accounts do not require an audit in accordance with Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and that no member or members have requested an audit pursuant to Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

As the Charity's annual income was over £25,000, the Trustees must also arrange for an independent person to carry out either an audit or an independent examination of the accounts. The Trustees elected to have an independent examination instead of an audit.

Our responsibility is to prepare accounts upon the basis of the information supplied to us, without conducting any formal scrutiny.

Dorota Haden of Haden Chartered Accountants has been appointed by the Trustees to carry out an Independent Examination in accordance with Charity Commission's Directions and Guidance. Independent Examination is subject to a separate report by the Examiner.

1 Accounting policies

Policies relating to the production of the accounts.

Basis of preparation and accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared on the accruals basis, under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102 and FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) published by the Charity Commission in England & Wales (CCEW), effective January 2019, (The SORP), and in accordance with all applicable law in the charity's jurisdiction of registration.

Risks and future assumptions

Given the charity's small size, it does not have a formal risk policy, though the Trustees are mindful of the strategic business and operational risks to which the charity might be exposed. The charity is a public benefit entity.

Policies relating to categories of income and income recognition.

Nature of income

Gross income represents the value, net of value added tax and discounts, of goods provided to customers and work carried out in respect of services provided to customers.

Categories of Income

Income is categorised as income from exchange transactions (contract income) and income from non-exchange transactions (gifts), investment income and other income.

Income from exchange transactions is received by the charity for goods or services supplied under contract or where entitlement is subject to fulfilling performance related conditions. The income the charity receives is approximately equal in value to the goods or services supplied by the charity to the purchaser.

Income from a non-exchange transaction is where the charity receives value from the donor without providing equal value in exchange, and includes donations of money, goods and services freely given without giving equal value in exchange.

Income recognition

Income, whether from exchange or non exchange transactions, is recognised in the statement of financial activities (SOFA) on a receivable basis, when a transaction or other event results in an increase in the charity's assets or a reduction in its liabilities and only when the charity has legal entitlement, the income is probable and can be measured reliably.

Income subject to terms and conditions which must be met before the charity is entitled to the resources is not recognised until the conditions have been met.

All income is accounted for gross, before deducting any related fees or costs.

Airfield Research Group Ltd

Accounting for deferred income and income received in advance

Where terms and conditions relating to income have not been met or uncertainty exists as to whether the charity can meet any terms or conditions otherwise within its control, income is not recognised but is deferred as a liability until it is probable that the terms or conditions imposed can be met.

Any grant that is subject to performance-related conditions received in advance of delivering the goods and services required by that condition, or is subject to unmet conditions wholly outside the control of the recipient charity, is accounted for as a liability and shown on the balance sheet as deferred income. Deferred income is released to income in the reporting period in which the performance-related or other conditions that limit recognition are met.

When income from a grant or donation has not been recognised due to the conditions applying to the gift not being wholly within the control of the recipient charity, it is disclosed as a contingent asset if receipt of the grant or donation is probable once those conditions are met.

Where time related conditions are imposed or implied by a funder, then the income is apportioned to the time periods concerned, and, where applicable, is accounted for as a liability and shown on the balance sheet as deferred income. When grants are received in advance of the expenditure on the activity funded by them, but there are no specific time related conditions, then the income is not deferred.

Any condition that allows for the recovery by the donor of any unexpended part of a grant does not prevent recognition of the income concerned, but a liability to any repayment is recognised when repayment becomes probable.

Income from legacies

Income from legacies is recognised when the charity has sufficient evidence that a gift has been left to them, that where required, probate has been granted, the executor is satisfied that the property in question will not be required to satisfy claims in the estate, that it is probable that the amount will be received by the charity, and the amount to be received can be estimated with sufficient accuracy, and that any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Where a payment is received from an estate or is notified as receivable by the executors after the reporting date and before the accounts are authorised for issue but it is clear that the payment had been agreed by the executors prior to the end of the reporting period, then the amount concerned is treated as an adjusting event and accrued as income in the accounting period if receipt is probable.

Where the charity has established entitlement to a legacy but there is uncertainty as to the amount of the payment, details of the legacy are disclosed as a contingent asset until the criteria for income recognition are met. Where a legacy is subject to the interest of a life tenant, the legacy is not recognised as income until the death of the life tenant.

If it is doubtful that full settlement of a legacy debtor will be received, then an adjustment is made to reduce the amount of the legacy debtor and legacy income rather than charging the adjustment as expenditure in the Statement of Financial Activities

Donated goods, facilities and services

Donated fixed assets are recognised at the current fair value. All such donations are recognised as donation income, and debited to fixed assets. However, see exception discussed under heading "Heritage Assets" below.

Donated goods that are not fixed assets are accounted for at a fair value, unless it is impractical to reliably measure the value of the donated items.

In the absence of any direct evidence of fair value of donated goods, then a value is derived from the cost of the item to the donor or, in the case of goods that are expected to be sold, the estimated resale value after deducting any anticipated costs of sales.

If it is impracticable to measure the fair value of goods donated for resale, or the costs of valuation outweigh the benefits, the donated goods are recognised as income when sold, with an equivalent amount being recognised as an expense.

The costs of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those goods upon receipt. When the goods are distributed freely or for a nominal consideration, then the carrying amount is adjusted at the time of sale, to the value at the point of distribution and the adjustment is shown as a cost of donations made.

The carrying amount of any stock held for distribution is assessed for impairment at the reporting date. All donated goods are recognised as donation income, and debited to trading stock. When trading stock is subsequently sold, or appropriated to meet an expense, then the carrying value of the stock is recognised as an expense. In accordance with the SORP, goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries, or for consumption by the charity are included in 'legacies and donations'. Goods donated for resale are included in 'Income from other trading activities'

The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt. If the goods held are to be distributed freely or for a nominal consideration, then the carrying amount is subsequently adjusted to reflect the lower of deemed cost adjusted for any loss of service potential and replacement cost. Replacement cost is the economic cost incurred if the charity was to replace the service potential of the donated goods at its own expense in the most economic manner.

Donated services and facilities (including seconded staff and use of property) are included in the accounts on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity.

All donated services and facilities are recognised as donation income when received, (provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably) and recognised as an expense with an equivalent value.

Membership subscriptions

The income and any associated Gift Aid or other tax refund from a membership subscription received by the charity in the nature of a gift, is accounted for on the same basis as a donation.

The income from a membership subscription received by the charity where the subscription purchases the right to services or benefits is recognised as income from charitable activities.

Policies relating to expenditure on goods and services provided to the charity.

Recognition of liabilities and expenditure

A liability, and the related expenditure, is recognised when a legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of a past event, and when it is more likely than not that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and when the amount of the obligation can be measured or reliably estimated..

Liabilities arising from future funding commitments and constructive obligations, including performance related grants, where the timing or the amount of the future expenditure required to settle the obligation are uncertain, give rise to a provision in the accounts, which is reviewed at the accounting year end. The provision is increased to reflect any increases in liabilities, and is decreased by the utilisation of any provision within the period, and reversed if any provision is no longer required. These movements are charged or credited to the respective funds and activities to which the provision relates.

Allocating costs to activities

Direct costs that are specifically related to an activity are allocated to that activity. Shared direct costs and support costs are apportioned between activities only if material. General administration expenses are not apportioned to activities.

Policies relating to assets, liabilities and provisions and other matters.

Heritage assets

Since its recognition as a charitable company, the charity has held an archive of books and other research material. The vast majority of items in the archive were donated to the predecessor organisations over many years. The collection in existence at the date of its transfer to the charity is not recognised in the Balance Sheet as cost information is not readily available, but the Trustees intend to obtain valuations for these items once they have been catalogued. The Charity's management policy in this respect is summarised in note 9. Individual heritage assets acquired post 21 July 2014 costing £50 or greater will be capitalised but not depreciated in view of the nature of the archive.

The two predecessor bodies transferred the archive materials referred to in the Trustees' Report to Airfield Research Group Limited at the point it was registered as a charity. No value is however recognised in respect of the collection in existence at the date of transfer to the charity, as explained above. This collection is administered by the Trustees and is kept at Alconbury Weald, located on part of the former RAF Alconbury.

It is the Trustees' expectation that funding for further acquisitions will come principally from membership subscriptions and donations. The charity will continue to dispose of donated goods (principally surplus books) to help fund its operations.

Debtors

Debtors are measured at their recoverable amounts at the balance sheet date.

Creditors and provisions

Liabilities are recognised on the accruals basis in accordance with normal accounting policies, modified where necessary in accordance with the guidance given in the SORP.

2 Liability to taxation

The Trustees consider that the charity satisfies the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 of the Finance Act 2010 for UK corporation tax purposes. Accordingly, the Charity is potentially exempt from taxation in respect of income or capital gains received within categories covered by chapter 3 part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, to the extent that such income or gains are applied exclusively on the specific charitable objects of the charity and for no other purpose. Value Added Tax is not recoverable by the charity, and is therefore included in the relevant costs in the Statement of Financial Activities.

3 Winding up or dissolution of the charity

If upon winding up or dissolution of the charity there remain any assets, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, the assets represented by the accumulated fund shall be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies having similar objects to the charity.

4 The contribution of volunteers

Airfield Research Group Ltd is an exclusively volunteer organisation, with no employed staff. It is therefore crucially dependent upon the dedication, hard work and goodwill of a limited number of volunteers to deliver its objectives and activities. Also, the content of the flagship Airfield Review comes entirely from contributions by volunteer members of the Group. More volunteers would enable ARG to carry out more pro-active presentational work and accelerate cataloguing of the Archive.

No employees received emoluments (excluding pension costs) in excess of £60,000 per annum.

5 Defined contribution pension schemes

The Charity does not operate a pension scheme.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 December 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
