Financial Review

Income: The principle sources of income are donations from natural & legal persons.

Risk management

The trustees have assessed the risk to which the charity is exposed including operational and financial risks. In the option of the Trustees the Charity has established resources and review system which, under normal operation conditions, should allow the risks identified to be mitigated to an acceptable level in its day to day operation.

Reserves

The Charity Commission defines reserves as the part of a Charity's income funds that is freely available. Reserves are therefore the resources the charity has or can make available to spend for any or all of the charity's purposes once it has met its commitments and covered its other planned expenditures. At the end of the accounting period the Charity's reserves comprised the following:

Total funds per balance sheet £56,686

Available reserves

The Trustees have examined the needs and challenges of the Charity in both the short and medium terms and conclude that these reserves are necessary.

Trustees responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The Trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities Acts 1993 and 2006 with regard to:

- the keeping of accounting records for the Charity
- the preparation of annual statements of account for the Charity
- the transmission of the statements of the account to the Charity Commission
- the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission
- the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the commission

Accounts must be prepared in accordance with the provisions of any Statement of Recommended Practice issued by the Commission.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
