

CORNWALL FAITH FORUM ANNUAL REPORT AND Review of 2021:

Sharing for Peace

COP 21 Walk, 10th April – A walk was held in the Kenwyn, Truro vicinity with an environment theme focusing on the forthcoming COP26 taking place in the Autumn. There were two groups of six participating. The walk commenced at the grave of Joseph Emidy at Kenwyn Church and progressed down the valley onto the outskirts of Truro. The weather was beautiful. Readings regarding the environment were given from the different faith communities at various stops along the walk trail.

Story-telling event for 100th Anniversary of first Race Amity event, 11th September 2021 – This event was led by Philomena Clifford from the Baha'i faith in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the first Race Amity event. Stories from the participating faith communities were told on the theme of reconciliation and there were a variety of stories, some personal and some related to individual faiths. It was felt this was an excellent event by all those who took part.

Dialogue on the conception of the Divine – Sunday, 24th October at Chacewater Village Hall. (JJ) advised that the event was a collaboration with Kehillat Kernow and CFF and is part of the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage. The theme was dialogue and the topic between the faiths was the conception of the divine. Four different faiths were represented and the speakers were from the Jewish, Muslim, Christian and Buddhist faiths. It was pleasing that there was a good attendance at the event. It was felt that the speakers were excellent and a good spirit of sharing. There were good and respectful questions from the audience. It is hoped that there will be a second event of a similar vein to be held in February/March 2022 with speakers from the Baha'i, Hindu and Pagan faith communities.

Building for Peace

RS reported that during the period of lockdown once the restrictions allowed that prayers were said at the DKO field by the Dome of Human Kindness. These were held on Thursdays at 1.00 pm. She felt that Tree Planting, Dor Kemyyn Peace Field, 6th November – Two trees were planted. One was a Hawthorne tree by the Christian faith community. The second was a replacement for the Hindu tree which had sadly been eaten by the deer. A recording of a chant by Yoti was recorded and played by the new tree which was special. It was noted that we have been planting trees for seven years.

In 2022 we will renew our commitment to meet at the DK field monthly to commemorate various events/festivals etc.

Learning for Peace

RS advised that it has been difficult to plan visits to schools owing to Covid. Several visits had to be cancelled owing to the prevalence of Covid in the school.

RS was pleased to advise that the CFF have been successful in receiving funding from St Luke's for a project called 'This time tomorrow'. The project will comprise recording interviews with different faith individuals advising how faith affects their daily lives, particularly in relation to their work. Currently she had interviewed ES (Pagan community) and invited CFF members to participate. She asked for support with the editing of the recording and asked if anyone could help.

Holocaust Education – RS informed the meeting of a current joint project between CFF, Kehelliat Kernow, Falmouth University and SACRE. Last year two animations had been made by the students concerning the survival of Blanka (mother of Kehelliat Kernow member Cynthia Hollingsworth) who survived Auschwitz. (RS) advised that Cynthia Hollingsworth and herself are now working with two groups of 2nd year students on new animations about the life of Blanka's family before World War 2. These will form part of a secondary school pack and will be launched in summer 2022. A teacher symposium will be held on 8th June 2022 at Falmouth University.

+Philip Mounstephen advised the meeting that following the report into global Christian persecution which he led, that the UK Freedom of Religion and Belief (FoRB) Forum has been set up. For further information see: <https://www.ukforbforum.org/> This Forum meets monthly comprising approximate 50 stake holder groups from all faith traditions. He felt that that this Forum is an excellent example of people of faith and non belief working together.
