The Club is formally managed by the Trustees and is in the process of dissolution and has been dormant in the year 2023-2024.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO has been to advance the education and provide for the recreation of children of school age by making facilities and services available to them during out of school hours and, at the discretion of the Trustees, during school holidays.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Coton Home Club was a charity with the aim of providing educational and recreational activities to local school-age children aged 4-11 years, through the provision of a Breakfast Club and After-School Club, open 8.00-8.50am and 3.30-5.30 every school day.

From September 2020, the charity withdrew from the operation of the Breakfast Club and After-School Club from September 2020. The trustees completed the decision to proceed with dissolution in the AGM. During the financial year, 2024-2025, the CIO has been in the process of distributing commencing application for the dissolution to the Charities Commission.

The Club is registered as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the Charity Commission.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In accordance with the CIO objectives and as part of the process of dissolution and the previous AGM decision, during the financial year 2024/25, the Coton Home Club did not undertake any financial transactions. The Coton Home Club continues to progress with the dissolution as part of the plan for closing the charity.

There were no expenses or income within the accounting period whilst the Coton Home Club remains inactive. No staff were employed by Coton Home Club.

The income did not exceed £25,000 income as part of the return submission.

The committee expects to proceed with the completion of the dissolution of the CIO.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The closing balance for the period was £550

These reserves are sufficient for the anticipated costs to be incurred in the next accounting period for dissolution.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

In line with the guidance on Charity submission, with income less than £25,000, the charity is submitting the annual report and accounts for 2024-2025 and is not required to provide an independent examiner report.
