The Trustees determine the Foundation's policies and strategy.

Margaret Evison acts as Executive Trustee, leading the Foundation's fund-raising, award-giving activities and other activities. She was assisted by a full-time paid schools' project officer, a part-time schools' paid project officer, and a paid part-time administrator.

The Foundation is proud of its mixture of young and more mature Trustees, with several Board members under 45. Because of the field in which we work and the strategic foresight to understand a changing world that this provides, we feel that this is very important.

In addition to the Board, volunteers have been very helpful in maintaining the website, providing a design service, and developing publicity material. We no longer use volunteers to implement the school awards scheme. An Honorary Treasurer manages the accounts.

Professor Dame Janet Beer agreed to be our Patron in early 2022. Dame Janet's commitment to diversity, equality and inclusion is central to our ethos as a Foundation. She has been associated with the Foundation since its earliest days, has attended various fundraising events and is a regular donor.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Foundation's overall mission is to promote in young people their own personal, mental and physical development. It gives awards in selected London schools which enable 17-year-old (Yr 12) students to stretch themselves constructively and so to gain more confidence, courage and self-reliance, as well as learning new skills. Successful applicants are given funds for legitimate expenses: these are carefully costed. We like to offer opportunity where little exists, and new schools joining the scheme are usually from the more disadvantaged parts of London.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trustees have considered the Commission's guidance on public benefit and believe they comply with it. The Foundation has continued to progress satisfactorily as regards fund-raising and in the giving of awards.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policy on Grant Making

Our policy is to make awards to the successful applicants (either groups or individuals) in Year 12 at state schools for carrying out projects that are personally challenging, taking them out of their 'comfort zones', and that they have conceived and planned themselves from scratch and carried out independently. There are now only two types of awards, Major awards were phased out during the year : School Awards (Yr 12s) carrying legitimate expenses funding of up to £500; and Special Awards (for 19–25 year-olds across England) carrying legitimate expenses funding of up to £5,000. These are handled as follows:

School award applications are developed by students in partner schools in London, with the support of the Executive Trustee, the Schools Project Officers and key Year 12 school staff members. The Foundation's work is introduced at Year 12 school assemblies, and after a number of school visits and email contact with students, applications are risk-assessed and finally 'judged' or selected for support by the Executive Trustee at the school. If appropriate, they are sent to designated external assessors ('experts') for comment before final ratification. These Year 12 school awards comprise the bulk of the charity's activities. We give annual Memorial Awards at the two private schools Mark Evison attended, very similar to School Awards.

A key feature of the School Awards is that the applicants must create their own challenges, plan and research them in detail, present them and carry them out independently. All applications are carefully risk-assessed and costed. All awards carry legitimate expenses funding to a maximum of £500, although relatively few applicants receive the maximum, and sometimes funding is not required at all.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- contribution made by volunteers.

staff are important to our success.

In 2021/2 we increased our partner schools from 60 to 96: they spanned 32 London boroughs, and 62 (66%) had above the London average percentage of free school meals, with 20 schools having over 40% of FSMs, and two schools over 60%.

Major Awards were phased out during the year.

An Australian Outback Award (a Special Award) is offered annually to under 25s when local weather conditions in Hay, New South Wales, allow: fares to Australia, expenses for car-hire, weekly pay (provided by the property) and a personal allowance are included.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Awards

Because of Covid-19 our award-giving was initially curtailed by having to work remotely in some schools.

Finally 604 applications (2021: 321) were received from 94 state schools, and 142 (2021: 102) School Awards were given at 69 (2021:58) state schools. In addition, two Memorial Awards was given at one private school. In total we worked with 94 state schools to give School Awards, and 2 private schools to give Memorial Awards. The final number of successful students from all schools who went ahead with their projects was 459 (2021: 329).

Outreach Programme

Awards are offered within our outreach programme to Year 12 students at all maintained schools in the London area, and two private schools (for Memorial Awards). In 2021/2022 we visited 96 schools (2021:60) to give assemblies remotely or in person at which the opportunities available and the process of applying were explained. Nearly 4,000 (2021:1288) students signed up as a result of hearing us present, and 3170 (2021: 1430) attended the follow-up sessions, remotely or in person. Finally, 142 awards (2021: 105) were made to individual or group applicants, directly benefitting 459 (2021: 329) students.

Continuity

We are keen to foster a continuing relationship with the award-winning beneficiaries in several ways:

- Accounts of projects and relevant photographs are submitted by award winners and entered on the website.
- Award winners are invited to talk about their awards in their own schools to the next cohort of Year 12s.
- We maintain a database of award winners.
- We seek soft/hard outcome information and data.
- Beneficiaries are usually invited to the Foundation's annual Christmas party and any other appropriate events: unfortunately, because of Covid-19 these were cancelled in 2021.

Fund Raising

Our income in the year totalled £59,245 (2021: £47,651), the principal sources being

- Grant-giving charities, trusts and foundations, including a grant of £5,000 from the Foyle Foundation.
- Fundraising events, one including an auction organised by the Foundation.
- Sponsorship funds raised by our award winners: these are particularly pleasing, as more of our awards become "self-financing".
- Many individual donations.

We are extremely grateful to all those who organised, participated in and contributed to this excellent achievement.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Foundation's policy is to continue building reserves over the medium term (as an endowment fund) concurrent with increasing expenditure on grant-giving activities. Our reserves decreased by £64,283 during the year.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising).
