Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity has significantly enhanced the educational experience by funding school resources, extracurricular activities, and infrastructure improvements. Their efforts have provided students with better learning environments and opportunities, fostering academic and personal growth. The charity's initiatives have also strengthened community ties, encouraging parental involvement and collaboration. By addressing educational needs and promoting a supportive community, the charity has contributed to a more inclusive and engaged society, benefiting both students and the broader community. During this academic year, we have held numerous events and fairs with the aim of bringing together parents, carers, and teaching staff in a friendly and social environment whilst at the same time raising money for the school federation. The funds raised have been allocated towards various needs, including playground equipment, a cabin structure for the Junior School, cabin fees, trestle tables, and a home, cover, and accessories for the chickens at the Junior School.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Our main source for funds this year has been through the various events organised and held by the PTA. We rely on our local and school community for their continuing support.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	The majority of income is spent directly on the schools, supporting the purchase of equipment and materials that enhance the learning or physical activity of all children throughout their time at the school. The main costs incurred all relate to the running of the events that help to raise funds for the school, examples being tea urns, gazebos, disposable cups, plates and cutlery and advertising etc. In general the costs of running the charity are kept to a minimum.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The charity faces key risks from declining volunteer engagement, which could impair its ability to provide vital services. Additionally, a decreasing birth rate may lower the number of families requiring support, affecting the charity's long-term sustainability and demand for its programs. Mitigating these risks is essential for future success.

Set out on pages

[Empty box for set out on pages]

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 /08 /2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below*~~) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
