Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Trust Deed - Foundation
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated company. Incorporated on 10 th October 2014
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees in the report have served throughout the period unless indicated otherwise. Appointment of trustees is governed by the Trust Deed of the charity. The Board of Trustees is authorised to appoint new trustees to fill vacancies arising through resignation or death of an existing trustee. New trustees are normally trained for their tasks by existing trustees.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Risk Management

Trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks that confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reviews to be carried out so that necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.

Description of Organisation

The charity is run by a team of volunteer trustees who manage the direction, policies and day to day management of the charity.

Changes in policy

The Trust's policies have remained the same throughout the period.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of the Jewish religion.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The organisation will benefit all those who wish to avail themselves of the religious services both as part of its Synagogue and its other educational services. The services provide public benefit as it increases awareness of spirituality and the Jewish religion. It also provides a local focal point for users to meet, study and attend lectures and services. Activities are open irrespective of the ability to contribute to costs.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The trustees are pleased to report a steady increase in membership and attendee numbers since services commenced. Regular daily and Shabbos and Yom Tov services are held. The charity held a number of successful educational and social programs during the period. The regular Kiddushim provide an opportunity for members and guests to meet in a cordial atmosphere and to participate in the activities of the charity.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity reports a deficit of £1,204 for the year

The trustees are of opinion that the balance on the reserves are sufficient to Meet any future commitments under the terms of funding.

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which Covers current commitments under the terms of their funding.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

COVID 19

The charity has not been materially affected by COVID 19 as membership and donations have continued at a similar level, with any reduction matched by a reduction in expenses.
