Trustees' Report – year to 31st December 2024

TwickFolk continues to involve itself with local community activities and initiatives in the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames.

In accordance with our objectives, we offer regular performance opportunities to all members of the community, especially the young (under 25s), who benefit from generous admission discounts.

We continue to host concerts by professional, semi-professional and amateur musicians, which are open to the public.

Treasurer's report for the year ended 31st December 2024

TwickFolk is run on a not-for-profit basis, by volunteers, in the Twickenham area.

During the year, we made a surplus of £1,251.

Resources at the year end were £3,301. This is above our target reserve of £2,000.

In accordance with our objectives, we offer regular performance opportunities to all members of the community, especially the young (under 25s), who benefit from generous admission discounts.

Due to the restrictions imposed because of the COVID pandemic, the club was closed from the start of the year, only reopening in late September 2021.

Treasurer's report for the year ended 31st December 2021

TwickFolk is run on a not-for-profit basis, by volunteers, in the Twickenham area.

As in 2020, our income in 2021 was greatly reduced by being unable to open for most of the year, while some expenses were ongoing.

At the year end, our expenditure had exceeded our income by £216, so we made a loss. Some figures have been estimated.

Resources at the year end were £2,409. This is still above our target reserve of £2,000.
