Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide such grants, financial support, supplies and equipment to such charities or charitable organisations operating in Uganda for the advancement of education, the preservation and protection of good health, the relief or prevention of poverty and the relief of sickness in such manner as the trustees shall think fit.

Continued to work with Basena Agro creativity Centre whose objectives include evoking, promoting and strengthening creativity in children and youth. The trust teamed up with Two Bridges Community School in a rural part of Uganda to assist as per constitution.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Working in partnership with Basena Agro Creativity centre in Uganda,

- To awaken and strengthen creativity.
- Promote advance education,
- Preserve and protect the environment and good health
- Relieve financial hardship of children and young people as well as families around Kampala
- Use creative processes to make a difference to people's lives by inspiring and empowering them to explore, develop and grow.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Successively worked with the community leaders to increase Covid19 awareness and worked on standard control mechanisms within the community to abate the spread of the disease at a large scale.

Successively organised resources and provided immense support to tackle child labour and early pregnancy amongst children, youth and students of the entire village community. The Trust has continued to fund writing and reading materials for children especially during the 2 years lockdown on schools.

Successively had positive engagements with the children and their guardians to provide food, home study systems and scholastic resources.

The Trust's website www.bcreativity.org.uk is still undergoing maintenance and the trustees successively appointed an IT specialist (i.e., at a value for money) to revamp the site to the required website standards. We believe that this will improve its user ability.

Th Trust has positively continued to empower parents through its saving scheme that has in return improved the children's home incomes.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has no reserve policy as our funding is still very low to warranty one, so currently no reserve policy exists

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not Applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

B Creativity raises its funds through fundraising with the local churches and other donors that feel fit to support the charity's activities.

Expenditure incurred on Two Bridges Community Primary School infrastructures has ensured that school motto i.e., "Every Child Matters" progresses in a positive direction. Through the charity donations provided to Two Bridges, the school has improved on the status of some of the classroom blocks and the projection for the school development is heading in positive direction.
