Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document <small>(eg. trust deed, constitution)</small>	CONSTITUTION
How the charity is constituted <small>(eg. trust, association, company)</small>	CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATION
Trustee selection methods <small>(eg. appointed by, elected by)</small>	Trustees must be appointed for 3 years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. After 3 years the trustees must retire and be re-appointed, trustees may only serve for a maximum of 3 consecutive terms but may be re-appointed after an interval of one year. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The promotion of the following charitable purposes for the public benefit in accordance with the laws of England and Wales:

To relieve unemployment by the following means:

- (a) Provision of workspace, buildings, and/or land for use on favourable terms
- (b) Provision of training and advice in order to provide employment opportunities in cases of financial or other charitable need through help:
 - (I) in setting up their own business, or
 - (II) to existing businesses
- (c) Provision of community facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation, learning, or other leisure time occupation

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main areas of activity undertaken for the public benefit by Regather Charity are as follows:

1. Community Centre - Improvement and use of a grade II listed building as a community centre
2. Community Green Space - Improvement and use of a public area of grass and trees into community green space through improving the environment and for education of urban agriculture.
3. Work and Social Facilities - Access to work and social facilities on favourable terms
4. Volunteering and Employment Opportunities - Opportunities for volunteering, employment and self-employment

In carrying out these activities, the trustees have had regard to the Guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

1. Community Centre
 - Continued carrying out repairs and maintenance
2. Community Green Space
 - Continued improvement of community garden green space in partnership with local residents and voluntary groups
3. Work and Social Facilities
 - Continued research into relevant grant funding programmes
4. Volunteering and Employment Opportunities
 - Continued to develop relationship with local volunteering and student placement provider

The capacity and activities of Regather Charity have been severely impacted and disrupted by the Covid-19 pandemic. (see Plans for the Future in other optional information)

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At the year end the charity had £120 free reserves. During the year Regather Charity did not have a reserves policy. This is because trustees decided at this stage in the establishment and development of the charity holding reserves and having a reserves policy was not necessary. This decision is reviewed by trustees on an ongoing basis and will be amended as decided necessary.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information

Plans for the Future

The main aims for Regather Charity are to review income generation / fundraising with a view to assessing the viability of covering professional fees and running costs of the charity, recruit new volunteers and trustees and recovery from the impact and disruption of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
