We conducted extensive field research and data collection, which culminated in sporting events in Guyana and East Africa

6. Plans for Future Periods

Looking ahead, the charity will continue to prioritise healthcare and there will be an increased focus on entrepreneurial solutions in healthcare and agriculture through the establishment of hubs. Future initiatives will include expanding our research efforts, increasing engagement with communities, and developing new partnerships to promote best practices in agriculture and health. There will be an increased focus on sporting activities and promotion of health and entrepreneurship through sport. We will be adding the region of the Amazon Shield (Guyana and Brazil) to the regions that we focus on.

We are developing partnerships with infrastructure providers to increase available sports facilities in these regions.
