The trustees are elected at the Annual General Meeting, and serve until the end of the next Annual General Meeting, where they can stand for re-election.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Charities Act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the year and of the incoming and

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently, making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent. The Trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable law, regulations with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF BRITISH ALBANIAN MUSLIM COMMUNITY

I report on the accounts of British Albanian Muslim Community for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages 7 to 9.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiners

As the Charity's Management Committee you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that an audit is not required for the year (under section 43(2) of the Act) and that an independent examination is required. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act
Have not been met; or
- (2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
