LGBT SHEFFIELD

Directors' report (incorporating the Trustees' annual report) for the year ended 31st March 2022

Summary of the main activities undertaken for public benefit

Our aims and objectives - Meeting the Public Benefit Requirement

To promote equality and diversity in the City of Sheffield and elsewhere and in particular the elimination of discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation and gender identity for the benefit of the public by raising awareness of discrimination. Conducting or commissioning research on equality and diversity, advancing education in equality and diversity, by teaching or producing materials. Cultivating a sentiment in favour of equality and diversity, associating voluntary organisations governmental public and private bodies to maximise the effectiveness of voluntary organisations run by and for LGBT People. The further the benefits to the residents of Sheffield especially the LGBT community, to promote health, advance education, and facilities in the interests of social welfare and for recreation and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the life of those residents. In pursuance of these objectives the Trustees shall have power to establish or secure the establishment of a community centre and to maintain or co-operate with any statutory authority such a centre for activities.

Ensuring our Work delivers our aims

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned developments will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set. We review our activities on a regular basis

Focus of our work

Our focus has been two fold:

a) To ensure the Charity meets the needs of the community it serves with due consideration of national legislation.

We have achieved this by establishing a continual programme of contact with the community enabling more users to access the our services and if necessary to support them.

b) To increase both the knowledge by all sections of the community we serve.

We have achieved this by increasing the publicity and web presence of the Charity. We have continually reviewed the groups and individuals using the Charity as a resource to local groups which are under-represented at present.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activity is the to support recreational, educational and leisure activities which improve the quality of life for the benefit of LGBT Community. We also run a weekly drop in café to support the community by offering support and information to people attending. We have a wide social media presence and website.

The charities Policy on Reserves

The Trustees and directors of the above mentioned charity and company stated and agreed the following on the 1st March 2015.

In order to protect the Charity from unforeseen events and problem, we consider it necessary to hold a sum of money in reserve. This is required to allow us to manage problems in a timely fashion. The reserves are also required to cover any income on which we would normally rely which we do not receive because of the aforementioned problems.

We currently consider a minimum sum of £5,000 to be adequate to cover these eventualities. Currently the value of free reserves stands at £5000.00 please see note 8.

Structure, governance and management

LGBT Sheffield (Company number 08422302) was incorporated on 27th February 2013 and its Memorandum and Articles of Association govern it. Its legal status is that of a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity (Charity number 1159800) It has no share capital and the liability of each member in the event of winding -up is limited to £1. Overall management of the Charity is the responsibility of the trustee directors who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the memorandum and articles of association. Day to day project activity is carried out by volunteers.

Exemptions

The directors have taken advantage of the exemptions available to small companies including the audit exemption (see statement on balance sheet)

Directors responsibilities for the financial statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the year and of the surplus or deficiency for the year then ended.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to : select suitable accounting policies and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company, and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act of 2006. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

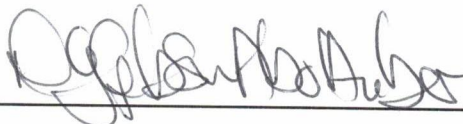

Small company provisions:

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

The directors declare that they have approved the directors' report above.

LGBT SHEFFIELD

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of LGBT Sheffield for the year ended 31st March 2022

I report on the accounts of the LGBT Sheffield for the year ended 31st March 2022 which are set out on pages 6-10

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the examiner

The Trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- (a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- (b) to follow the procedure laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the 2011 Act;
- (c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (ii) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and;
- (iii) that the financial statements be prepared in accordance with the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities
