Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To foster the public's knowledge and appreciation of music and thereby the advancement and support of the arts, culture and education for the public benefit; this is achieved in particular by the presentation of high quality public concerts with low ticket prices.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Naunton Music held a series of four concerts during 2023; in promoting these concerts, the trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. Audiences were provided with varied and extremely high quality performances, and ticket prices were kept low to fulfil our commitment to public accessibility.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity does not make grants.

All activities relating to organising, promoting and running these concerts are carried out by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity
during the year

The following 4 concerts took place:

On Friday 19 May 2023, Viktoria Mullova and Alasdair Beatson performed works for baroque violin and fortepiano by Beethoven, J.S. Bach and Schubert.

On Friday 16 June, choral ensemble The Marian Consort performed a programme of works from late Renaissance Rome. This included works by Palestrina, Anerio, Allegri and Scarlatti.

On Friday 7 July, Japanese pianist Mao Fujita played a programme of works by Mozart and Chopin.

The final concert of 2023 took place on Friday 22 September and featured the Van Kuijk String Quartet with guitarist Sean Shibe. The programme included two quintets for string quartet and guitar by Boccherini and Castelnuovo-Tedesco, plus several pieces for solo guitar.

All of the concerts were very well attended and extremely well received.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's activities consist of an annual programme of concerts, which in practice requires musicians to be booked for at least a year in advance. It therefore endeavours to maintain sufficient financial reserves to ensure that, even if ticket sales are weaker than anticipated, it can nevertheless continue to run the planned concerts for the subsequent year.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Naunton Music's funds are generated from a combination of ticket sales and a Supporters' and Friends' scheme, whereby donations are made to the charity. On one occasion, these funds were supplemented by a legacy. All funds are applied towards producing the concerts, with the musicians' fees being by far the largest expense. The trustees consider that the key objectives of the charity have been met by the engagement of musicians of extremely high quality, offering attractive musical programmes with tickets at affordable prices.

The trustees are most grateful to all those who support the charity.
