Khalsa Centre Gurdwara

Trustees' Report For The Year Ended 31 December 2024

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Objectives and Activities

Aims and Objectives

The objectives of the Charity are:

- To advance the education of the Sikh community within Greater London.
- To provide recreational and leisure-time facilities in the interests of social welfare for members of the Sikh community who have particular needs arising from youth, age, infirmity, disability, poverty, or social and economic disadvantage.

In furtherance of these aims, the Charity delivers a range of religious and community-based activities for the public benefit. Regular programmes include Diwans on Saturday evenings, Naam Simran on Wednesday evenings, and Asa Ki Vaar on Sunday mornings. Additional special programmes—such as Gurburabs, Sangrand, Puranmashi, ladies' satsang, and other notable occasions—are organised throughout the year and communicated through the monthly programme.

The Charity also conducts Anand Karaj marriage ceremonies in accordance with Sikh Maryada. Where required, a registrar from the local authority can attend the Gurdwara to complete the legal marriage formalities. Furthermore, the Charity arranges special prayers and services for the wider Sadh Sangat and upon request from individual members of the community.

Public Benefit

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when carrying out their responsibilities. The public benefits arising from the Charity's work are described in the section entitled 'Objectives and Activities' above.

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

Main Achievements

Throughout the year, the Charity has continued to deliver its regular weekly programmes, including Wednesday services, Saturday evening diwans and Sunday morning Asa Ki Vaar. In addition, a range of services and programmes were held to commemorate significant Sikh religious occasions such as Gurburabs, Sangrand, Puranmashi, Avtar and Shaheedi days. The Gurdwara also accommodates ceremonies requested by members of the community, including birthdays, naming ceremonies, engagements, weddings, anniversaries and funeral services.

The Charity continues to support the educational and cultural development of the community by offering free classes in Punjabi, English, Vaja, Kirtan and Tabla, as well as promoting awareness and understanding of Sikh scriptures. An annual summer coach trip to a seaside resort was also organised, providing recreational and social opportunities for members.

Khalsa Centre continues to flourish with the ongoing support of its congregation and wider community. The generosity of donors has enabled the Charity to strengthen its financial position and build reserves, allowing the Trustees and management to plan for future improvement works aimed at upgrading and refurbishing the Gurdwara premises to provide a more welcoming and conducive environment for worship and community activities.

The Trustees have established clear goals and objectives to further develop the Charity into a positive, inclusive and supportive environment for the benefit of all members of the Sikh community.

Re-appointment of Independent Examiner

Astar Business Advisors Limited, Chartered Certified Accountants have expressed their willingness to stand for reappointment and a resolution proposing their re-appointment will be put forward at the Trustees' meeting at which the accounts are approved.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees' are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at anytime the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

The trustees' report was approved by the board of trustees and signed on its behalf by:

Khalsa Centre Gurdwara
Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Khalsa Centre Gurdwara
For The Year Ended 31 December 2024

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Khalsa Centre Gurdwara (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

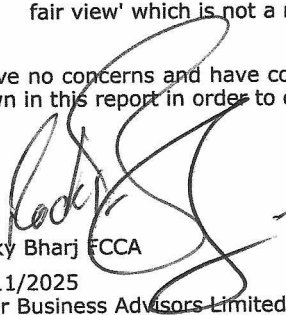

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent Examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and contents of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Khalsa Centre Gurdwara
Notes to the Financial Statements

1. General Information

Khalsa Centre Gurdwara is a charitable incorporated organisation registered with the Charity Commission, registered charity number 1160078. The principal address is 95, Upper Tooting Road, London, SW17 7TW.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)", Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Charities Act 2011.

The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

2.2. Going Concern Disclosure

The trustees have not identified any material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

2.3. Incoming Resources

During the year, the Charity generated rental income from its investment properties, which are held to provide an ongoing and sustainable source of funds to support the charitable objectives of Khalsa Centre Gurdwara. Rental income is derived from residential tenants under formal rental arrangements.

Total rental income recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities for the year ended 31 December 2024 amounted to £92,620 (YE 31 December 2023 £71,200). This income is recognised on an accruals basis, reflecting the period to which it relates, with amounts due but not yet received included in debtors at year-end.

There were no significant rent arrears, or contingent rents during the year. All rental arrangements are considered to be at arm's length and consistent with market terms.

2.4. Resources Expended

Resources expended are recognised on an accruals basis and are classified under activity headings that reflect the Charity's principal operations. Expenditure on charitable activities comprises costs directly related to the Gurdwara's religious services, community programmes, and educational provision, together with an appropriate share of support and governance costs. Expenditure relating to the management and upkeep of investment properties is presented separately. No trustee remuneration is incurred, and volunteer contributions are not included in the financial statements.

2.5. Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of the fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Freehold	Nil
Fixtures & Fittings	20% Reducing Balance Method

2.6. Investment Properties

All investment properties are carried at fair value determined annually and derived from the current market rents and investment property yields for comparable real estate, adjusted if necessary for any difference in the nature, location or condition of the specific asset. No depreciation is provided for. Changes in fair value are recognised in the statement of financial activities.

2.7. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are basic financial assets and include cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and are readily convertible to a known amount of cash with insignificant risk of change in value, and bank overdrafts.
