- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The trust is controlled by the trustees who are assisted by volunteers who maintain the financial records of the charity. The trustees meet regularly to assess and review activities, needs of the institute, grant applications, approve awards etc. No trustee receives any remuneration for their services. The day to day running of the charity is dealt with by the chair of trustees, Abdul Hai Munshi

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Approximately £17,500 worth of aid given to various areas of need.

Facilitated educational advancement in terms of literacy in deprived areas abroad.

Assisted in the scholarship programme run by the trust. Fees are not charged from the students from impoverished or disadvantaged backgrounds. The Institute provides food, clothing, cash allowances including textbooks and accommodation. Majority of the students enrolled for their studies at the institute are from poor and disadvantaged backgrounds. The financial condition of their guardians is not such, that they can afford to spend money for the education and training of their young children and adorn them with education and culture. This Funds transferred in the financial year stated contributed towards over 50 scholarship programmes being awarded.

Al-Mahmood General Hospital is a charity hospital. The hospital has run cataract eye surgery clinics in the hospital and in the neighbouring villages. Over 20,000 have sought medical assistance at the hospital in the period. The following medical services have been provided in this period: dental care, outpatient medical care, orthopaedics, general surgery, neurology, dermatology, urology providing dialysis facilities 24/7, physiotherapy, ophthalmology, radiology, and maternity. The number of dialysis machines have increased from two to five.

This year, the vast majority of funds were spent on treating patients suffering from coronavirus. Administering oxygen, medication and making available any other necessary provisions. In the first wave, 1539 patients were treated. For patients who passed away and did not leave behind funds to cover burial costs, these arrangements were made through charitable funds.

A large increase in turnover was a result of donations made by the public to cover relief provided during the Coronavirus pandemic. The dire situation in India, where our organisation provided the relief has been one of the worst affected. We supported Al-Mahmood General Hospital which is the only government-covid-approved hospital within a 45km radius. Further, teachers who had been made redundant or whose income had ceased due to the pandemic, were being provided support.

The large spike correlated with the spike in coronavirus cases and the financial burden it caused upon the institution providing relief and treatment. Donations increased because of the need. The cost during the worst periods of the pandemic reached £10,000 per day (which Al-Mahmood General Hospital was incurring). As we are the main charity working in this area, donations increased.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The General fund represents funds arising from past operating results. The trustees are satisfied that the balance of the fund will enable the charity to meet its objectives and will be able to consider possible other venues in furtherance of its objectives. The trustees have also examined the requirement to maintain reserves for the ongoing work of the charity and concluded that the most appropriate level is between 3 to 6 months of operational expenditure.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charities Principle sources of funding are via donations and fundraising.

Current expenditure has gone a long way in meeting the charities common objective of alleviating poverty in poverty-ridden areas and providing long-term sustainable programmes for accelerating economic growth.
