

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 2nd September 2024 To 1st September 2025

Charity name: KESSER YISROEL EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE

Charity registration number: 1160356

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	The primary object of the association, as set out in its Trust Deed, is the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation, education or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their age, infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances with the object of improving their conditions of life.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	To achieve these objects, the Charity organises, maintains, and supports community-based educational initiatives, structured lecture series (Shiurim), and localised learning programs focused on Jewish ethics and law (Halacha) primarily targeting retired individuals.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	The trustees have given due consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit. They ensure that all educational activities, resources, and events are structured to benefit the community by making providing accessible, cohesive services and supporting lifelong learning.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	During the year, Kesser Yisroel Educational Institute successfully sustained its core community learning schedules, ensuring consistent delivery of educational materials and lectures. Supported by a dedicated volunteer base and members, the charity maintained the consistency and outreach of its programmes, fostering a robust environment for communal education and supportive learning.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	The Charity maintained a stable financial position, operating within its means to cover running and core program costs. During the year the Charity received income of £25,205 (2024 – £22,450) and spent £23,455 (2024 - £23,215) on its charitable activities. Reserves at the year-end were £1,750 (2024 - £nil).
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	The trustees have reviewed the Charity's needs for reserves in line with the guidance issued by the Charity Commission. As the Charity has no fixed overheads, building assets, or salaried staff, it does not require a capital reserve. The Charity operates a simple financial model where voluntary donations received from individuals are directly used to fund the cost of its activities. The Charity's policy for holding reserves is to ensure sufficient reserves are held for the continuity of the educational lecture series and to cover nominal administrative costs (such as bank fees or regulatory filings) based on projected donations.
Amount of reserves held	At the year end the charity had reserves of £1,750 (2024 - £nil).
Details of fund materially in deficit	No funds are in deficit.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	The charity has no fixed costs and spends funds as and when raised. As such the trustees are satisfied that there are no uncertainties about the Charity continuing as a Going Concern.

Structure, Governance and Management

Type of governing document	The charity is governed by a Trust Deed dated 17 th July 2014
How is the charity constituted?	The charity operates as an unincorporated association.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	As per the Trust Deed, new trustees are appointed by a special resolution of the existing Trustees passed at a special meeting. Individuals are selected based on their skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the Charity.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Kesser Yisroel Educational Institute

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Kesser Yisroel Educational Institute (the Trust) for the year ended 1st September 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
