Who We Are

We are a community organisation supporting families through social, educational, and cultural activities. Our focus is on promoting social inclusion for people who are socially excluded, especially those of Egyptian heritage — including asylum seekers and refugees.

What We Do

We help people settle and thrive in the UK by:

- Offering English language and communication classes.
- Creating opportunities for community participation and integration.
- Providing support and facilities for those facing age, disability, or financial challenges.

Supporting Children & Young People

Children are at the heart of our work. We run social and educational activities to help them achieve their potential. During lockdown, we moved our tutoring in Science, Maths, and English for Years 5–10 online, ensuring children could keep up with school and improve their English skills. These classes have been a lifeline for many families, with 18–25 families participating weekly.

Building Community Connections

Since March 2020, our weekly online cookery classes have brought people together to share recipes — including traditional Egyptian dishes — taught by volunteer chefs from our community. The sessions are open to all abilities and genders, and we also deliver meals to older, isolated members.

We have since expanded our activities to include:

- Sewing workshops.

- Arts and crafts sessions.
- Arabic lessons for young people.
- An adult choir.

Through these programmes, we connect people of all ages, reduce isolation, celebrate culture, and build skills for life.
