Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year1) Saving Groups:

- a) Ongoing supervision and problem solving has been carried out by the local team mostly remotely.
- b) A new volunteer went to Uganda between April and September and reengaged with the saving groups after the COVID stop

2) Income Generations Activities:

Ongoing activities have been carried out to maintain the existing IGAs.

The focus of the volunteer during her placement was to reengage and recover the existing IGAs, however no new IGAs were created.

3) Social Infrastructure

During this year the drama group went back to performing to sensitise the community in relation to saving groups, hygiene and sanitation

4) Skills Training

Significant amount of skills training was required this year to recover the saving groups and IGA after the long COVID stop and the absence of international volunteers

5) Providing Technical Expertise

Technical expertise courses were provided to the IGAs group to assess how they better improve their business and recover after the COVID stop

6) International Volunteers

A new international volunteer was in Uganda between April and September 2022. Her main focus was to assess the status of the Saving Groups and IGAs after the COVID stop and to help them to recover from that.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

At the moment, our main areas of work are:

1. Saving Groups
2. Income Generations Activities
3. Social Infrastructure
4. Skills Training
5. Providing Technical Expertise

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

1) Saving Groups:

- a) Training and set up of new saving groups which can operate under supervision.
- b) Provide refreshment training and conflict resolution training to existing Saving Groups so they can operate independently

2) Income Generations Activities:

Communities for Development support income-generating activities of selected members of the community who have been saving for at least two years in one of the formed saving groups. Income Generating Activities (IGAs) consist of small businesses managed by a group of people to increase their household income through livelihood diversification.

3) Social Infrastructure

- a) Drama Group: We have actively support and encourage a local drama group that presented their new drama about the importance of boiling and handling milking of cows as well as good customer service and pricing when it comes to having a business.

4) Skills Training

- a) Saving Groups
 - i) 3-day refreshment savings training
 - ii) 5-day new group formation training
 - iii) 1-day conflict resolution training
- b) IGAs
 - i) 5-day Basic Business Training
 - ii) 2-day course on accountancy and book records
 - iii) 2-day training on cow caring
 - iv) 1-day training on selling milk

5) Providing Technical Expertise

- a) Several site visits by the donors
- b) Technical expertise from locals including coaching in effective IGA creation and sustainable business.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- 1) Saving Groups:
 - a) Ongoing supervision and problem solving has been carried out by the local team mostly remotely.
 - b) Due to COVID19 restriction it was not possible to create new saving groups
- 2) Income Generations Activities:

Ongoing activities have been carried out to maintain the existing IGAs. No new IGAs were created due to COVID19 restrictions to meet and send a new volunteer to create them
- 3) Social Infrastructure

During this year the drama group could not perform due to COVID19 restrictions
- 4) Skills Training

No skills training could be carried out this year due to COVID19 restrictions
- 5) Providing Technical Expertise

Technical expertise was not provided in person due to COVID19 restrictions.
- 6) International Volunteers

The process of looking for a new international volunteer to go to Uganda and assess the situation in the field started in December and a candidate was chosen towards the end of February. Her placement was agreed to start in April.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

At the moment, our main areas of work are:

1. Saving Groups
2. Income Generations Activities
3. Social Infrastructure
4. Skills Training
5. Providing Technical Expertise

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

1) Saving Groups:

- a) Training and set up of new saving groups which can operate under supervision.
- b) Provide refreshment training and conflict resolution training to existing Saving Groups so they can operate independently

2) Income Generations Activities:

Communities for Development support income-generating activities of selected members of the community who have been saving for at least two years in one of the formed saving groups. Income Generating Activities (IGAs) consist of small businesses managed by a group of people to increase their household income through livelihood diversification.

3) Social Infrastructure

- a) Drama Group: We have actively support and encourage a local drama group that presented their new drama about the importance of boiling and handling milking of cows as well as good customer service and pricing when it comes to having a business.

4) Skills Training

- a) Saving Groups
 - i) 3-day refreshment savings training
 - ii) 5-day new group formation training
 - iii) 1-day conflict resolution training
- b) IGAs
 - i) 5-day Basic Business Training
 - ii) 2-day course on accountancy and book records
 - iii) 2-day training on cow caring
 - iv) 1-day training on selling milk

5) Providing Technical Expertise

- a) Several site visits by the donors
- b) Technical expertise from locals including coaching in effective IGA creation and sustainable business.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- 1) Saving Groups:
 - a) Ongoing supervision and problem solving has been carried out by the local team mostly remotely.
 - b) Due to COVID19 restriction it was not possible to create new saving groups
- 2) Income Generations Activities:

Ongoing activities have been carried out to maintain the existing IGAs. No new IGAs were created due to COVID19 restrictions to meet and send a new volunteer to create them
- 3) Social Infrastructure

During this year the drama group could not perform due to COVID19 restrictions
- 4) Skills Training

No skills training could be carried out this year due to COVID19 restrictions
- 5) Providing Technical Expertise

Technical expertise was not provided in person due to COVID19 restrictions.
