Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance education for the public benefit, in particular by holding functions to discuss and explain a wide range of subjects in a friendly, conducive atmosphere. To promote, maintain, advance, and encourage the arts, particularly the development of musical appreciation by the general public, including by producing and presenting concerts, supporting performers, and commissioning new works.

In 2022, we held a series of 11 concerts ranging from solo piano recitals to miniature, abridged stagings of two operas. The series featured several special programmes, showcasing music by women and LGBTQ+ composers. We also held a lunch, with a talk on “The failure of Barings Bank”, as well as a lecture on The History of the 1962 Orpington by-election”.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the first part of the year, we continued raising money towards the cost of purchasing a new piano, raising a further £10,000 (having raised more than £58,000 in 2021). This initiative was to enable our concert activities to continue, and in 2022 we paid out a total of £7,670 in fees to more than 20 freelance musicians. Attendances for our concerts and other events throughout the year were high, with our audience diverse in age and background.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE
THE KETTNER SOCIETY - 1161105

I report on the accounts of The Kettner Society for the year ended 31st December 2022 which are set out on pages 2 to 3.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act);
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

To promote, maintain, advance, and encourage the arts, particularly the development of musical appreciation by the general public, including by producing and presenting concerts, supporting performers, and commissioning new works.

In 2021, we held a series of 11 concerts (10 featuring classical music and one showcasing jazz) ranging from solo piano recitals to orchestral performances. We also held several lunches, with speakers on the City of London Phonograph & Gramophone Society, Turner's House at Twickenham, Samuel Pepys, John Hampden, Charles Dickens, and life as an obituarist. We also introduced some educational walks around London between lunches and evening concerts.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

When our activities resumed in April 2021 after the final national lockdown, the piano at the venue we operate from had been removed. We raised more than £55,550 towards the cost of purchasing a new piano in 2021 – a campaign that has continued into 2022. This was to enable our concert activities to continue, and in 2021 we paid out a total of £16,484 in fees to more than 50 freelance musicians. Attendances for our concerts and lunches throughout the year were high, with our audience diverse in age and background.
