Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit, to promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) throughout the world.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- (a) monitoring abuses of human rights;
 - (b) research into human rights issues;
 - (c) educating the public about human rights;
 - (d) contributing to the sound administration of human rights law;
 - (e) commenting on proposed human rights legislation;
 - (f) raising awareness of human rights issues;
 - (g) promoting public support for human rights;
 - (h) promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations;
 - (i) international advocacy of human rights;
- In furtherance of that object but not otherwise, the trustees shall have power to engage in political activity provided that the trustees are satisfied that the proposed activities will further the purposes of the charity to an extent justified by the resources committed and the activity is not the dominant means by which the charity carries out its objects. In order to achieve this, the Foundation will:
- (a) Provide funds to authors of written works (either fiction or non-fiction) that call attention to instances of clear breaches of human rights. In doing so, encourage further research into these and other instances, as well as creating incentive for writers to continue to monitor any such abuses
 - (b) Educate the public about human rights by organising lectures, debates and seminars, hosted by writers whose work has called attention to such clear breaches. These events will be open to all members of the public, in the interests of raising awareness and promoting public support for human rights.
 - (c) Comment on proposed human rights legislation, or publicise comments made by others in order to raise awareness and to promote respect for these rights, as well as increasing their popular support. Such comment may also include specific reports of judicial decisions, where available, in order to ensure the sound administration of human rights law.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
