Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	FOUNDATION CONSTITUTION
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATION
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	APPOINTED

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about: • policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees; • the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works; • relationship with any related parties; • Trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.	Mr C. Morgan has continued the role as chief executive in a voluntary capacity whilst trying to secure funding and making partnerships for the charity to start completing work. Before the organisation was made into a charity C. Morgan made a lot of useful contact and contract were based on his engagement with clients and the work with young people. The new board felt this was something the charity should continue to build on and explore making C. Morgan Chief Executive when funding was obtained to fulfil the role in a paid capacity. This would be considered a conflict of interest by the charity commission and the board would have to put policies and procedures in place to manage this position if they felt it was the best thing to do moving forward.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people by using media to empower them to engage in mainstream education, activities, establishments and other activities as a means of:

- (a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- (b) advancing education; and
- (c) relieving unemployment.

The organisation has been non active. £300 is available for future activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

If C.Morgan is to be made Chief Executive on a permanent basis, policies and procedures for supervision and management will need to be created and adhered to and will need to be in place before any funding is sourced for the position.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The organisation has been non active. £300 is available for future activities.
