Summary of the main activities undertaken for public benefit

Our aims and objectives - Meeting the Public Benefit Requirement

Our aims and objective set out in our constitution are:-

the preservation and protection of good health amongst the inhabitants of the City of Sheffield and districts by promoting healthy eating habits and a healthy lifestyle in particular but not exclusive through the development and support of community based food and health projects and the advancement of education of the public in all matters relating to healthy eating and healthy living

Ensuring our Work delivers our aims

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned developments will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set. We review our activities on a regular basis.

Focus of our work

Our focus of work will be on all sections of the community in the City of Sheffield

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activity will be to improve the well being of all citizens of Sheffield.

The charities Policy on Reserves

The Trustees and directors of the above mentioned charity and company stated and agreed the following on the 15th March 2016 that when funds are received a decision will be taken as to the reserves.

Directors' report (incorporating the Trustees' annual report) for the year ended 31 March 2022

Structure, governance and management

Sheffield Good Food Trust was formed as a CIO March 2015 Charity number 1161233

It has no share capital and the liability of each member in the event of winding -up is limited to £1. Overall management of the Charity is the responsibility of the trustee directors who are elected and c0-opted under the terms of the memorandum and articles of association. Day to day project activity is carried out by volunteers.

Exemptions

The trustees have taken advantage of the exemptions available to small companies including the audit exemption (see statement on balance sheet)

Directors responsibilities for the financial statements

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the year and of the surplus or deficiency for the year then ended.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to : select suitable accounting policies and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company, and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act of 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

Small company provisions:

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees report above.

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Sheffield Good Food Trust for the year ended 31 March 2022

I report on the accounts of the Sheffield Good Food Trust for the year ended 31st March 2018 which are set out on pages 6-10

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the examiner

The Trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- (a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- (b) to follow the procedure laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the 2011 Act;
- (c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (ii) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and;
- (iii) that the financial statements be prepared in accordance with the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Sheffield Good Food Trust for the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts of the Sheffield Good Food Trust for the year ended 31st March 2018 which are set out on pages 6-10

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the examiner

The Trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- (a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;

- (c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.
