Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The preservation and protection of good health for the public benefit primarily in Pakistan, in particular but not exclusively, through the provision of a medical centre and the provision of appropriate free medical care and health education.

The objectives of the charity will be achieved by raising funds, to be invested in various projects including;

- a) the education and training of healthcare professionals,
- b) building healthcare and education related facilities, and
- c) the provision of life-saving equipment and medication.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

i) Grant making policy – The charity undertakes a checklist of internal reporting controls (i.e. due diligence) in regards to grant making, including obtaining details of the beneficiary, the disbursement of funds, and ensuring funds are used for their designated purpose.

ii) Volunteer policy – Time and resources are provided to the charity by volunteers on an unpaid basis.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The main achievements of the charity during the year under review are considered to be as follows:

i) Fundraising - Productive fundraising activities securing generous and regular donations, particularly from the graduates of Dow Medical College, Karachi, Pakistan, resident in the UK.

The total funds raised in the year under review amounted to £2,218.

ii) Grants - Total funds amounting to £2,000 were granted to support the following specific projects;

a) HOPE (Health-Oriented Preventive Education) UK CIO – working with this UK registered charity (and Pakistan registered Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO)), which has a mission to provide services of health and education for the poor and needy in Pakistan.

No funds were granted in the year under review.

b) Midland Doctors Association UK – working with this UK registered charity, which has a mission to purchase, equip and operate a hospital facility for the poor and needy in Kashmir, Pakistan.

Funds granted in the year under review amounted to £1,000.

c) East Riding Community Foundation Trust – working with this UK registered charity, which has been leading various inter-community cohesion programmes and activities in the East Riding Yorkshire area, England.

Funds granted in the year under review amounted to £1,000.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In the Trustees' view, the reserves should provide the charity with adequate financial stability and the means for it to meet its charitable objectives for the foreseeable future.

The trustees propose to maintain the charity's reserves at a level which is at least equivalent to six months operational expenditure, and have done so having regards to its manner of operation of likely funding streams.

The trustees review the amount of reserves that are required to ensure that they are adequate to fulfil the charity's continuing obligations on a quarterly basis at their finance meeting.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/a

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal sources of funds are through the generous donations made by;

- i) the graduates of Dow Medical College, Karachi, Pakistan. The diaspora resident in the UK, Europe, North America and the Middle East.
- ii) the general public.
- iii) Gift Aid donation tax credits. The charity has registered charity status with HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC), enabling it to claim tax credits on donations received from individual UK resident taxpayers, under the Gift Aid scheme.

These are an additional source of funding for the charity.

The eighth Gift Aid tax credit claim amounting to £375 for the year to 30/04/2024 has recently been submitted to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC).

The charity granted funds totalling £2,000 in the year under review. These funds provided financial support to specific projects and beneficiaries resident in Pakistan, enabling the charity to fulfil its objectives.

No expenditure was incurred by the charity in the year under review, as time and resources were provided to the charity on an unpaid voluntary basis.
