INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF REMNANT CHRISTIAN CENTRE

We report on the accounts of Remnant Christian Centre for the year ended 31 March 2025

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 (2) of the charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

Having been satisfied that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- To follow the procedures laid down in General Direction given by the Charity commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanation from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

- (a) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the Charities Act and
 - (b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with accounting requirements of the Act have not been met
- (2) to which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper
