Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	2024 was a year of landmark growth for the Khalsa Foundation, anchored by the expansion of our core vision for the Khalsa Family Retreat. For the first time in the charity's history, we successfully delivered three major flagship events. Crucially, the Khalsa Family Retreat was hosted twice—a sold-out summer event and a second sold-out winter edition. These high-impact, multi-day retreats welcomed over 600 delegates, with a remarkable 75%+ retention rate demonstrating the value perceived by returning families. The Retreats served as vital opportunities for families to learn together, connect deeply with one another, and build relationships within a supportive community. In addition, the long-standing Khalsa Camp continued to evolve, offering essential individual learning pathways in Sikhi. Our core support services thrived, including the free-of-charge Sikh Parenting Course, which provided practical guidance to families on embedding Sikhi into family life. The Anand 4 Life course focused on strengthening marriages, delivering strategies to help newlyweds and future couples navigate relationship difficulties through UK-wide and online events. We actively pursued collaborative engagement, partnering with fellow educational charities and participating in multi-faith initiatives. This outreach included delivering educational talks in schools and engaging with diverse community groups.

		By investing in these comprehensive resources and dynamic events, the Foundation fulfilled its mission to enrich beneficiaries' lives, foster educational growth and cultural understanding, and contribute positively to wider society.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The Trustees are pleased to report that the Khalsa Foundation maintained a financially sustainable position throughout 2024, enabling the successful delivery of our ambitious program schedule and expansion of core charitable activities. The Foundation's principal source of income continues to be voluntary donations from the Sikh community. The significant investment in 2024 allowed for the hosting of three flagship events (the two Khalsa Family Retreats and Khalsa Camp), the continued free provision of the Sikh Parenting Course, and the expansion of the Anand 4 Life course across the UK and online. Whilst the organisation is in a financially healthy position and can continue to expand its operations, inflation and cost of operations has increased significantly over the past year, and this has continued to have an impact, however the organisation has adjusted and increase fundraising efforts to ensure continued efficiencies in our spending.

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2024

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
