Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity's principal source of funding comes from the fees paid by parents for school activities, including drama, lessons, and dance. These fees provide the primary income necessary to support the school's operations. The main expenditures are payments to teachers for their services and the costs associated with maintaining the school premises. Additional expenses include educational materials, activity supplies, and organization of special events such as the Christmas, Easter, and Halloween fairs, as well as drama and dance performances. Overall, the charity manages its resources to ensure that the majority of income directly supports educational activities while maintaining a sustainable operation for both staff and students.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves and Contingency Planning Any reserves held by the charity are retained to address situations of acute financial need, such as: • Increases in rent or premises costs. • A decrease in the number of students enrolled. • The inability to increase fees for lessons or activities. These reserves ensure that the charity can continue operating smoothly and maintain quality education and services even in the face of unexpected financial pressures.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£ 10000

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the education of the public, particularly young people up to the age of 16 years, in the subject of the Russian language, both written and spoken word.

To help young people, especially but not exclusively, through leisure time activities, so as to develop their capabilities and promote life-long skills that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- providing lessons in Russian language and culture to young people up to the age of 17 years
- organising celebrations and events linked to Russian culture and traditions

Throughout the year, the school had an average of 60 pupils. The number at the start of the year was 58, increasing to 61 by the summer term. This was split into 7 classes, taught by 8 teachers and supported by volunteers. All lessons were online.

The trustees met online once every 6-8 weeks to discuss the direction of the school and to work with the administration to achieve our goals.
