Governing Document

The Charity is a trust constituted under a Trust Deed dated November 1, 2014 as amended by a deed dated April 19, 2015.

Trustees are appointed by the existing trustees.

A trustee who is a minister is permitted by the Trust Deed (as amended) to be a stipendiary.

Objects

The objects of the Charity are to advance the Christian religion in accordance with the Westminster standards, to the glory of God and for the benefit of all mankind everywhere.

Activities

In planning activities the trustees have considered the Commission's guidance on public benefit and, in particular, the specific guidance on charities for the advancement of religion. For the Charity to achieve its objects satisfying public benefit requirements, the trustees have determined that the Charity's principal activities necessitate gathering in person for the provision of charitable services.

The Charity relies extensively on volunteer support to provide and conduct the full range of its services and activities.

Bury St Edmunds Presbyterian Church ("BSEPC") is committed to enabling as many people as possible to worship and serve the living God, and to be instructed in the Christian faith.

Services of public worship are advertised and are open to all without charge. Recordings of sermons are regularly uploaded and freely available to all via the Internet, and Christian literature is displayed and available without charge.

BSEPC does not own property or real estate, and hired the Newbury Community Centre to conduct its public ministry.

Achievements and Performance

As noted above under 'Activities', BSEPC's principal activities necessitate gathering in person, but during November 2020 such gatherings were restricted by government regulations. During that period the elders met for worship each Lord's Day at the usual meeting place and streamed audio and video of the services via the internet.

Regular weekly Bible studies and prayer meetings were held. The church maintained contact and interaction principally via electronic means when not gathered, including a ladies fellowship.

The Lord's Supper was frequently observed when the church was gathered, and over the course of the year one child was baptized.

Extensive pastoral visitation was undertaken, especially by the Rev. Matthew Jolley.

The three charity trustees are also elders of the church and attend regular meetings of the Presbytery of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in England and Wales, of which this congregation is a member.

Financial Review

Accounts have been prepared on a cash accounting basis in accordance with Section 133 of the Charities Act 2011, reporting receipts and payments with a statement of assets and liabilities.

Receipts of £86,258 for the year (previous year £54,495) comprised donations of £74,051 (grants £nil), investment income of £55, Gift Aid recovery of tax of £10,552, and other receipts £1600.

As is usual for a charity of this type and size, a significant proportion of the payments of £54,380 (previous year £52,809) relates to stipend and ministerial support.

The church made grants and diaconal distributions of £6,500 during the accounting year (previous year £1,498).

Receipts exceeded payments by £31,878, the surplus being added to reserves. This compares with a surplus of £1,686 for the previous year.

Reserves policy

The policy of the trustees is not to accumulate reserves but to use reserves in the promotion of the Charity's objects, and maintain a balance on unrestricted funds that equates to at least six months' unrestricted payments to cover unforeseen situations that may arise from time to time. In light of the main risks facing the Charity the trustees consider the current level of reserves and their use (as necessary) to fund annual deficits satisfactory.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Bury St Edmunds Presbyterian Church

I report on the accounts of the Church (Registered Charity Number 1161627) for the year ended 31st August 2021.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
