Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	For the public benefit: 1) to promote the sound administration and development of the law, in particular in relation to the use of stop and search powers. 2) to promote ethical standards of conduct in policing, in particular, in relation to the use of stop and search powers to ensure policing is fair, effective and accountable.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Stopwatch is a coalition of legal experts, academics, citizens and civil liberties campaigners. We aim to address excess and disproportionate stop and search, promote best practice and ensure fair, effective policing for all.  Our activities aim to: - Raise awareness and inform the public about the use of police stop and search powers, - Develop, conduct and publish research on stop and search and alternatives to it, - Create opportunities for impacted communities (particularly but not exclusively young people) to participate in the public debate on stop and search, - Highlight good practice in the use of stop and search, - Recommend improvements to the law and regulations governing stop and search, - Provide support to people seeking to challenge the unlawful use of stop and search powers, - Advance human rights through the means described above.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	StopWatch's trustees held due regard to the guidance issued by the charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Covid-19 had a profound and unprecedented impact on everyone. It set the context for policing, and this meant we had to adapt our work to ensure we were reaching the communities impacted by stop and search. Black and Asian communities while suffering higher rates of Covid-19, were subject to higher rates of police contacts and fines across the enforcement of lockdown restrictions. Policing remained focused on enforcement, with increases in stop and search, use of force and disproportionate responses to protest. Despite the disruptive impact of the pandemic, StopWatch continued to raise awareness of the impact of stop and search while monitoring and challenging the disproportionate use of these powers. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Conducted research on impact of COVID laws and police accountability, initiating research on new policing technology, age and ethnic profiling, data gathering and gendered policing responses.</li> <li>- Developed and hosted online events with community groups, statutory bodies and key partner organisations.</li> <li>- Released a statement on the use of new legislation created to handle the COVID-19 pandemic. Developed a webpage for more information and shared widely with members, networks and via Twitter.</li> <li>- Wrote an open letter, supported by partner organisations and academics, to the Home Secretary over the proposed introduction of Serious Violence Reduction Orders. These proposals subvert existing legal safeguards on the use of stop and search – the 'reasonable suspicion' test for all searches covered by the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 and relevant code of practice (Code A).</li> <li>- Submitted a detailed response to the Home Office stop and search consultation, which was developed through consultation with over 40 StopWatch members.</li> <li>- Developed a series of resources to increase awareness and help those affected to manage their interactions with the police. For example, in consultation with parents, we developed a guide for parent and children, which was re-evaluated by</li> </ul>

		consulting parents groups online. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Initiated initial discussions to research the use of the exceptional stop and search power, Section 60. Suspicionless Section 60 search powers have resulted in some of the most egregious racial disproportionalities in all policing; StopWatch analysis of police data found that in 2018/19, black people were searched under Section 60 at almost 45 times the rate of white people.</li> <li>- StopWatchorganised a variety of events,during the pandemic, aimed at raising awareness, offering training, sharing resources and providing safe spaces for those experiencing policing to be heard. This included youth training, parents' groups, report launches, conferences and policy seminar.</li> <li>- StopWatch developed a series of resources to increase awareness and help those affected to manage their interactions with the police. This included latest developments in police practice such as increased use of handcuffing and force, searching of mobile phones and technology.</li> <li>- To assist people in understanding their rights, StopWatch developed a COVID webpage, specific email and a downloadable bookletwhich was shared throughout our network and on Twitter.</li> <li>- Planning underway to update the Y-Stop resources in keeping with community consultation and evaluation. Our short films have been viewed more than 1.7 million times; and the Y-Stop app has been downloaded by more than 10,000 people.</li> </ul>

Financial review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Despite challenges posed by the pandemic, StopWatch's financial position was reasonably secure at the end of the financial year 2020/21. We had secured funding for covering staff costs for the next two years and had built a modest reserve. We have aimed to build this reserve in a sensible and proportionate manner and this remains a priority for the next two years.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves are held to ensure the sustainability of the organisation, to fill gaps in funding and to meet unexpected costs.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 03 / 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
