Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity gives grants to other charities to achieve its objects. The main project is in Burkina Faso where the charity has given grants to a local charity. The charity also gives grants to Turkish based charities Kareem Home and Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi. In addition, they provide grants to a Pakistan based charity called Bright Hope Foundation. The main source of income is UK public donations.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Burkina Faso monitoring visit report: 25/6/2024 to 30/6/2024

Participants: Abdul Qudeir Khan and Haroon Latif

- 25th June 2024:

Our flight from Manchester, scheduled for the evening, was delayed by an hour, causing us to miss our connecting flight in Casablanca. Consequently, we had to stay in Casablanca for a day.

- 27th June 2024:

We finally arrived at Ouagadougou Airport at 1:10 AM, where we were welcomed by Sheikh Abdullah and representatives from Islamique de Niamanga. After a short drive, we checked into our hotel. Due to the delay, we now had only three days left in Burkina Faso.

After an early breakfast, we returned to the airport to collect our visas and passports. Unfortunately, the visas sent from Brussels never arrived, so we had to purchase new ones on-site. Later, we visited the proposed school site and had an informal meeting with staff members of Islamique de Niamanga.

- 28th June 2024:

Accompanied by representatives from Islamique de Niamanga, we did some essential shopping. Since it was Friday, we took the afternoon off for some much-needed rest.

- 29th June 2024:

Our final day began early. We attended the end-of-year assembly and high school graduation, which was well-attended by local dignitaries, councillors, teachers, students, and their families. In the evening, we held a meeting with the charity, delivered trustee training, and participated in a rice distribution event. During this event, individuals exchanged tokens for 15kg bags of rice, while those without specific tokens received 5kg bags. Around 500 bags were distributed.

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	CIO- Foundation constitution registered on 4th June 2015
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. 2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship;
2. To relieve financial hardship, sickness and poor health amongst orphans and widows;
3. To relieve and assist people who are the victims of war or armed conflict or natural and/or man-made disasters, epidemic, or famine, including (without limitation) provision of emergency response and recovery including the supply of medical and/or financial aid to such persons; and
4. To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship of refugees and displaced persons, including by preserving and protecting their physical and mental health, in all cases by any charitable means, working anywhere in the world regardless of the beneficiaries' religion, race, ethnicity, gender, geographical location and political conviction.

Receipts and Payments Accounts for the year ended 30th June 2023

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity gives grants to other charities to achieve its objects. The main project is in Burkina Faso where the charity has given grants to a local charity. The charity also gives grants to Turkish based charities Kareem Home and Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi. In addition, they provide grants to a Pakistan based charity called Bright Hope Foundation. The main source of income is UK public donations.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity managed to raise funds towards their charitable objects. They were able to send grants to Burkina Faso, Pakistan and Turkey. The charity also managed to visit their new charity partner based in Turkey called Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity holds £5,000 in reserve in case of an emergency expense and to cover running costs.

Sacred Giving Projects

Turkey project

Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi monitoring visit

Participants: Abdul Qudeir Khan , Haroon Latif , If'haam Haq Mohammed and Qaseem Ahmed

In May 2023 a sacred Giving team was able to visit the project. During the visit we were able to visit the project offices . They teach Quran , Arabic, Islam and they have therapy that is led by the scholars twice a week. We learnt that the charity activities are to support orphans, provide welfare , translation services and the provision of funding to cover medication for the sick .

Mr Abdul was able to recommend the charity to look for other UK based charities working in Turkey and Syria to support their charitable activities . He also highlighted the importance of an MOU and Partnership agreement. He also encouraged Qasim to contact other charities to partner with Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi.

Pakistan project

Bright Hope Foundation

Bright Hope Foundation during the year was able to provide free check-up treatment, lab tests, ultrasound and medicine in their free health care camps in impoverished areas of Pakistan such as Nankana, Nishatabad, Masoorabad and many more. Furthermore, the organisation was able to set up a flood relief camp where they provided food, clothes and blankets in the hardship season of the Pakistan floods.

Sacred Giving

Burkina Faso

Association Islamique de Niamanga

The organisation successfully completed the foundation and the first-floor stage before Ramadan 2023. Sacred Giving was able to raise funds for the second stage of the construction of Taqwa School Mosque.

Taqwa School Mosque will provide a permanent education environment and Masjid that will be vital role in bringing the community together and improving the lives of future generations. The school will provide formal education facilities, Quranic and Arabic studies. Furthermore, Taqwa School Mosque will offer people from all social and religious backgrounds a safe, inclusive environment especially for orphans and destitute children who will require regular support through sponsorship programmes.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	CIO- Foundation constitution registered on 4th June 2015
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. 2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (A) To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship;
- (B) To relieve financial hardship, sickness and poor health amongst orphans and widows;
- (C) To relieve and assist people who are the victims of war or armed conflict or natural and/or man-made disasters, epidemic, or famine, including (without limitation) provision of emergency response and recovery including the supply of medical and/or financial aid to such persons; and
- (D) To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship of refugees and displaced persons, including by preserving and protecting their physical and mental health, in all cases by any charitable means, working anywhere in the world regardless of the beneficiaries' religion, race, ethnicity, gender, geographical location and political conviction.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity gives grants to other charities to achieve its objects. The main project is in Burkina Faso where the charity has given grants to a local charity. The charity also gives grants to a Turkish based charity running an orphanage for Syrian children who are victims of ongoing political unrest and civil war inside Syria. The main source of income is UK public donations.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Achievements and performance
