How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.</li><li>2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.</li></ol>

Section C                      Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship;
2. To relieve financial hardship, sickness and poor health amongst orphans and widows;
3. To relieve and assist people who are the victims of war or armed conflict or natural and/or man-made disasters, epidemic, or famine, including (without limitation) provision of emergency response and recovery including the supply of medical and/or financial aid to such persons; and
4. To prevent or relieve poverty or financial hardship of refugees and displaced persons, including by preserving and protecting their physical and mental health, in all cases by any charitable means, working anywhere in the world regardless of the beneficiaries' religion, race, ethnicity, gender, geographical location and political conviction.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity gives grants to other charities to achieve its objects. The main project is in Burkina Faso where the charity has given grants to a local charity. The charity also gives grants to Turkish based charities Kareem Home and Suriyeli gocmenler dernegi. In addition, they provide grants to a Pakistan based charity called Bright Hope Foundation. The main source of income is UK public donations.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
