Report of Trustees of Others First Foundation-CIO For the financial year ending 28th February 2025

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 28th February 2025.

Principal Activities

The principle activities of the charity are to promote the voluntary sector for the purpose of public benefit by providing office space and other services required by other charities and voluntary organizations by considering the following definitions:

'The voluntary sector' means charities and voluntary organisations.

- Charities are organizations, which established for exclusively charitable purpose in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- Voluntary organisations are independent organisations, which are established for a purpose that adds value to the community as a whole, or a significant section of the community and which are not permitted by their constitution to make a profit for private distribution.
- Voluntary organisations do not include local government or other statutory authorities.

Others First Foundation has been registered as a CIO-charity on 19th June 2015 and the Trustees of the Charity from the registration date are as follow as:

Mr. Ali Zarej, Mr. Steven Goodwin and Mr. Stephen D. Infield

(The charity administration is wholly managed by volunteers. It has no paid staff)

Projects and activities of the others First Foundation during the financial year ending 28th February 2025:

On 15th July 2016, The Trustees managed to find a building that was suitable for establishing a community center for the use of other charities and voluntary organizations as planned in the objectives of the charity.

The building continued to be used regularly by local charities and non-profit voluntary organisations for their office use, daily or weekly meetings, AGMs and conferences and seminars, catering and charity events, internet and other services.

The Trustees were pleased to be able to help other charities and voluntary sectors to have a place to work from and facilitate them with their required space and services towards their charitable or humanitarian activities.

Income and Expenditure

During the financial year ended 28th of February 2025, the total income of the charity was a total of £134,466.00 (year 2024= £113,268.00) which was received from private donors, and Grants.

By the end of financial year, the charity had expended a total of £124,734.00 (year 2024= £132,038.00) for its rent and rates, insurance, utilities and other administrative expenses.

At the end of year, the cash at the bank was about £22273.00 (year 2024= £20,838.00)

The center was open and fully operated by volunteers and trustees, and there were no paid staff for this financial year. The expenses of the charity were kept to a minimum, except for essential expenses such as rent, rate and utility bills which had to be paid by the charity.

Trustees Plan

Trustees plan to continue with their services to other charities and non-profit organisation,

- To find potential donors to help with the expenses of running the center
- To apply for grants from charities, trusts and other foundations to help supplement the running costs of the building and services.
- To continue with gift Aid claims.
- To keep the building in safe and healthy condition for use by the volunteers
- To establish required policy for the charity and consider all risks and provide plans to ensure the risk_ free options and procedures
- To secure the policies on income and assets of the charity to prevent any fraud or misusing
- For strengthening community ties and promoting inclusivity, trustees aim to arrange a variety of cultural and social events for the local community, as well as for other charities and volunteer-led organisations.
- To deliver a range of workshops, training sessions, documentary reports and educational courses that cater to different age groups and needs. These activities will be hosted at our community center and supported by our dedicated team of volunteers, who play a vital role in ensuring that our programs are accessible, engaging, and beneficial to all members of the community.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

The Trustees are aware that they are required by law applicable to charities in England and Wales to prepare the Trustees Annual Report and financial statements for every financial year, which must give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity.

- Select suitable accounting practices and ensure they are applied consistently
- Ensure accounting practices adhere to United Kingdom accounting standards
- Prepare the financial statements on an ongoing concern basis. If the charity is to be wound up, a final closing account will be produced.
- Ensure that any financial records accurately reflect the position of the Charity, and that any statement complies with the Charities Act 2011 and the provisions of the foundation's constitution.
- The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and to take reasonable steps to detect and prevent fraud and other irregularities.

Risk Assessment

During the year the trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity might be exposed. Those risks, as identified, have been reviewed and mitigation plans put in place to deal with them.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 28/2/2025.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I can confirm the charity's gross income not exceeded £250,000.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29/02/2024.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I can confirm the charity's gross income not exceeded £250,000.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Report of Trustees of Others First Foundation-CIO For the financial year ending 28th February 2023

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 28th February 2023.

Principal Activities

The principle activities of the charity are to promote the voluntary sector for the purpose of public benefit by providing office space and other services required by other charities and voluntary organisations by considering the following definitions:

'The voluntary sector' means charities and voluntary organisations.

- Charities are organisations, which established for exclusively charitable purpose in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- Voluntary organisations are independent organisations, which are established for a purpose that adds value to the community as a whole, or a significant section of the community and which are not permitted by their constitution to make a profit for private distribution.
- Voluntary organisations do not include local government or other statutory authorities.

Others First Foundation has been registered as a CIO-charity on 19th June 2015 and the Trustees of the Charity from the registration date are as follow as:

Mr. Ali Zarei, Mr. Steven Goodwin and Mr. Stephen D. Infield.

(The charity administration is wholly managed by volunteers. It has no paid staff)

Projects and activities of the others First Foundation during the financial year ending 28th February 2023:

On 15th July 2016, The Trustees managed to find a building that was suitable for establishing a community center for the use of other charities and voluntary organizations as planned in the objectives of the charity.

The building continued to be used regularly by local charities and non-profit voluntary organizations for their office use, daily or weekly meetings, AGMs and conferences and seminars, catering and charity events, internet and other services.

The Trustees were pleased to be able to help other charities and voluntary sectors to have a place to work from and facilitate them with their required space and services towards their charitable or humanitarian activities.

Income and Expenditure

During the financial year ended 28th of February 2023, the total income of the charity was in total of £122,308.00 (year 2022=121,469.00) which was received from private donors, gift aid and other grants.

By the end of financial year the charity had expended a total of £118,800.00 (year 2022 = £115,196.00) for its rent and rates, insurance, utilities and other administrative expenses.

At the end of year the cash at the bank was about £17331.00 (year 2022= £17444.00)

The center was open and fully operated by volunteers and trustees and there was no paid staff for this financial year. The expenses of the charity were kept in minimum except the essential expenses such as rent, rate and utility bills which had to be paid by the charity.

Trustees Plan

Trustees plan to continue with their services to other charities and non-profit organization,

- To find potential donors to help with the expenses of running the center
- To apply for grants from charities, trusts and other foundations to help supplement the running costs of the building and services.
- To continue with gift Aid claims.
- To keep the building in safe and healthy condition to use by volunteers
- To establish required policy for the charity and consider all risks and provide plans to ensure the risk free options and procedures
- To secure the policies on income and assets of the charity to prevent any fraud or misusing.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

The Trustees are aware that they are required by law applicable to charities in England and Wales to prepare the Trustees Annual Report and financial statements for every financial year, which must give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity.

- Select suitable accounting practices and ensure they are applied consistently
- Ensure accounting practices adhere to United Kingdom accounting standards
- Prepare the financial statements on an ongoing concern basis. If the charity is to be wound up, a final closing account will be produced.
- Ensure that any financial records accurately reflect the position of the Charity and that any statement complies with the Charities Act 2011 and the provisions of the foundation's constitution.
- The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and to take reasonable steps to detect and prevent fraud and other irregularities.

Risk Assessment

During the year the trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity may be exposed. Those risks, as identified, have been reviewed and mitigation plans put in place to deal with them.

Report of Trustees of Others First Foundation-CIO For the financial year ending 28th February 2022

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 28th February 2022.

Principal Activities

The principle activities of the charity are to promote the voluntary sector for the purpose of public benefit by providing office space and other services required by other charities and voluntary organisations by considering the following definitions:

'The voluntary sector' means charities and voluntary organisations.

- Charities are organisations, which established for exclusively charitable purpose in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- Voluntary organisations are independent organisations, which are established for a purpose that adds value to the community as a whole, or a significant section of the community and which are not permitted by their constitution to make a profit for private distribution.
- Voluntary organisations do not include local government or other statutory authorities.

Others First Foundation was registered as a CIO-charity on 19th June 2015. The current Trustees of the Charity are as follows:

Mr. Ali Zarei, Mr. Steven Goodwin and Mr. Stephen D. Infield.

Note that original trustee member, Mr. Allen Mason, resigned March 2021 due to ill health

(The charity administration is wholly managed by volunteers. It has no paid staff)

Projects and activities of the others First Foundation during the financial year ending 28th February 2022:

On 15th July 2016, The Trustees managed to find a building that was suitable for establishing a community center for the use of other charities and voluntary organizations as planned in the objectives of the charity.

The building continued to be used regularly by local charities and non-profit voluntary organizations for their office use, daily or weekly meetings, AGMs and conferences and seminars, catering and charity events, internet and other services.

Income and Expenditure

During the financial year ended 28th of February 2022, the income of the charity was a total of £121,469.00 which was received from private donors, gift aid and other grants.

By the end of financial year, the charity had spent a total of £115,196.00 (year 2021 = £122,107.00) for its rent, rates, insurance, utilities and other administrative expenses.

At the end of year, the cash at the bank was rounded to £17,444.00 (2021 = £13,545.00)

During the first six months of the year, the centre was only partially operational due to the Covid 19 pandemic. From July 2021, after Covid restrictions were lifted, the centre was fully operational, and run by volunteers and trustees. There was no paid staff for this financial year.

The expenses of the charity were kept to a minimum except for essential expenses such as rent, rates and utility bills, which were ongoing expenses of the charity.

Daily expenses and maintenance costs which had built up over years from one of the Trustees for £15,000, were generously donated by this trustee, converting it into a donation, and declining the offer of reimbursement by the Others First Foundation.

Trustees Plan

Trustees plan to continue with their services to other charities and non-profit organization,

- To find potential donors to help with the expenses of running the center
- To apply for grants from charities, trusts and other foundations to help supplement the running costs of the building and services.
- To continue with gift Aid claims.
- To keep the building in safe and healthy condition to use by volunteers
- To establish required policy for the charity and consider all risks and provide plans to ensure the risk free options and procedures

- To establish required policy for the charity and consider all risks and provide plans to ensure the risk free options and procedures
- To secure the policies on income and assets of the charity to prevent any fraud or misusing.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

The Trustees are aware that they are required by law applicable to charities in England and Wales to prepare the Trustees Annual Report and financial statements for every financial year, which must give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity.

- Select suitable accounting practices and ensure they are applied consistently
- Ensure accounting practices adhere to United Kingdom accounting standards
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis. If the charity is to be wound up, a final closing account will be produced.
- Ensure that any financial records accurately reflect the position of the Charity and that any statement complies with the Charities Act 2011 and the provisions of the foundation's constitution.
- The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and to take reasonable steps to detect and prevent fraud and other irregularities.

Risk Assessment

During the year the trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity may be exposed. Those risks, as identified, have been reviewed and mitigation plans put in place to deal with them.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 28/02/2022.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I can confirm the charity's gross income not exceeded £250,000.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

OTHERS FIRST FOUNDATION-CIO

Report of Trustees of Others First Foundation-CIO For the financial year ending 28th February 2021

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 28th February 2021.

Principal Activities

The principle activities of the charity are to promote the voluntary sector for the purpose of public benefit by providing office space and other services required by other charities and voluntary organisations by considering the following definitions:

'The voluntary sector' means charities and voluntary organisations.

- Charities are organisations, which established for exclusively charitable purpose in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- Voluntary organisations are independent organisations, which are established for a purpose that adds value to the community as a whole, or a significant section of the community and which are not permitted by their constitution to make a profit for private distribution.
- Voluntary organisations do not include local government or other statutory authorities.

Others First Foundation has been registered as a CIO-charity on 19th June 2015 and the Trustees of the Charity from the registration date are as follow as:

Mr. Allen Mason, Mr. Ali Zarei, Mr. Steven Goodwin and Mr. Stephen D. Infield.

(The charity administration is wholly managed by volunteers. It has no paid staff)

Projects and activities of the others First Foundation during the financial year ending 28th February 2021:

On 15th July 2016, The Trustees managed to find a building that was suitable for establishing a community center for the use of other charities and voluntary organisations as planned in the objectives of the charity.

The building continued to be used regularly by local charities and non-profit voluntary organisations for their office use, daily or weekly meetings, AGMs and conferences and seminars, catering and charity events, internet and other services.

The Trustees were pleased to be able to help other charities and voluntary sectors to have a place to work from and facilitate them with their required space and services towards their charitable or humanitarian activities.

During COVID day-to-day activities were curtailed but essential services continued to be provided by the Foundation.

Income and Expenditure

During the financial year ended 28th of February 2021, the total income of the charity was in total of £109432.00 which was received from private donors, gift aid and other grants.

By the end of financial year the charity had expended a total of £122107.00 (year 2020 = £100546) for its rent and rates, insurance, utilities and other administrative expenses.

At the end of year the cash at the bank was about £13,545.00 (2020 = £26,431.00)

During the year the center was fully operated by volunteers and trustees and there was no paid staff for this financial year. The expenses of the charity were kept in minimum except the essential expenses such as rent, rate and utility bills which had to be paid by the charity. Following a safety risk assessment, the charity started renewing fire alarm and safety system, in addition to improving the total measures of the health & safety of the volunteers and visitors.

Trustees Plan

Trustees plan to continue with their services to other charities and non-profit organization,

- To find potential donors to help with the expenses of running the center
- To apply for grants from charities, trusts and other foundations to help supplement the running costs of the building and services.
- To continue with gift Aid claims.
- To keep the building in safe and healthy condition to use by volunteers, which was improved by renewing fire alarm and safety system, in addition to improving the total measures of the health & safety of the volunteers and visitors.
- To establish required policy for the charity and consider all risks and provide plans to ensure the risk free options and procedures
- To secure the policies on income and assets of the charity to prevent any fraud or misusing.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

The Trustees are aware that they are required by law applicable to charities in England and Wales to prepare the Trustees Annual Report and financial statements for every financial year, which must give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity.

- Select suitable accounting practices and ensure they are applied consistently
- Ensure accounting practices adhere to United Kingdom accounting standards
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis. If the charity is to be wound up, a final closing account will be produced.
- Ensure that any financial records accurately reflect the position of the Charity and that any statement complies with the Charities Act 2011 and the provisions of the foundation's constitution.
- The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and to take reasonable steps to detect and prevent fraud and other irregularities.

Risk Assessment

During the year the trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity may be exposed. Those risks, as identified, have been reviewed and mitigation plans put in place to deal with them.
