Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote and advance, for the benefit of the public, agriculture, horticulture, livestock breeding and arts and crafts which are of educational, historical and cultural benefit to the community and in furtherance of this purpose the society may hold an annual show.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity stages an agricultural show which has been running for over 130 years. The benefits of this are that members of the public who are farmers and breeders are encouraged to produce the very best examples of their particular speciality that they can, thereby preserving and improving animal husbandry and subsequently food quality. The competitive exhibition of such specimens educate, entertain and inform members of the public who may not otherwise come into contact with traditional or modern farming techniques.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity staged an agricultural show in August. The benefits of this were that members of the public who are farmers and breeders were encouraged to produce the very best examples of their particular speciality that they can to be judged, thereby preserving and improving animal husbandry and subsequently food quality while giving the public an entertaining interlude. The competitive exhibition of such specimens educated, entertained and informed members of the public who may not otherwise come into contact with traditional or modern farming techniques.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

Sykehouse Show Society

On accounts for the year
ended

30 September 2025

Charity no
(if any)

1162603

Respective
responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

- In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention
1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote and advance, for the benefit of the public, agriculture, horticulture, livestock breeding and arts and crafts which are of educational, historical and cultural benefit to the community and in furtherance of this purpose the society may hold an annual show.

The charity stages an agricultural show which has been running for over 130 years. The benefits of this are that members of the public who are farmers and breeders are encouraged to produce the very best examples of their particular speciality that they can, thereby preserving and improving animal husbandry and subsequently food quality. The competitive exhibition of such specimens educate, entertain and inform members of the public who may not otherwise come into contact with traditional or modern farming techniques.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity staged an agricultural show in August. The benefits of this were that members of the public who are farmers and breeders were encouraged to produce the very best examples of their particular speciality that they can to be judged, thereby preserving and improving animal husbandry and subsequently food quality while giving the public an entertaining interlude. The competitive exhibition of such specimens educated, entertained and informed members of the public who may not otherwise come into contact with traditional or modern farming techniques.

Sykehouse Show Society

On accounts for the year

Respective
responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

- In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention
1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
