Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Throughout the charity's activities, the Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit as stated in para 1.18 of charities SORP.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	To achieve these charitable objectives, a lot of activities were organised in the period: This year, we have opened a new branch in Kent, enabling us to advance the Christian religion in the UK. Children church services were held on Sundays to direct them in the ways of the Lord. We believe that in introducing the children to Christ at an early age they will not depart from God when they are older. Once every year, the children ministry get the opportunity to minister to the congregation. The children's development is underpinned by a strong and experience Sunday school team. We are proud to say that each one of the children played a part in the service and enjoyed it. The Lord can and does use children. The Youth Ministry caters for young adults between the ages of 13 and 21. Our society and culture sometimes neglect the youth and their well-being, at RPMI we understand the importance of every young person knowing about God and understanding the Bible so that they can each make an informed decision to follow Jesus Christ. This also enables them to be lifelong followers of Christ, empowering them to live as disciples of Jesus Christ in our world today. The Youth also have their church services two to three times in a month with the support of experienced facilitators. Free therapeutic counselling and mentoring is also offered for the youth, members of the church and non-members. The Men's and Women's Ministries meet on alternating months at a more informal level to do in-depth study of the Bible and discuss issues on empowering themselves as well as their families. Quarterly meetings were also organised by the church where the men and women take a break from the hustle and bustle of everyday life and spend time seeking the face of the Lord.

	Our normal weekly meetings on Sundays at continued to grow from strength to strength. These meetings are from 10am to 12.30pm and services are held for adults, the Children and the Youth. We are grateful to God almighty for watching over all members during this time of great uncertainty as some were essential workers and had to commute to work. Our prayers go to all those who lost friends and loved ones during the period. We meet again in our localities on different days of the week to study the word of God and also pray for ourselves, families, the church, communities, the nation and the world; there have been testimonies from these prayer meetings. Cell meetings were held virtually on different days of the week to study the word of God and also pray for nations, family and friends, the church and communities. We have prayer meetings and dawn prayers respectively, where we dial in and pray on pertinent issues affecting us as individuals, the church, nation and the world.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

- In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention
1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
