TRUSTEES REPORT

During the 2020 to 2021, Colossians Family Network continued to provide its services to the community virtually through the website, dedicated hotline and virtual zoom webinars, workshops and counselling sessions. We supported our key stakeholders through the Covid-19 through our regular outreach services and virtual prayer line.

We reached over 5,000 families, had more than 500 unique participants and families on various workshops and sessions. During this period we delivered over 12 workshops (with a few repeats due to popular demand), 104 virtual prayer sessions, and over 1M unique hits on our websites, social media platforms and various information & advice meetings.

Colossians Family Network continued to focus our services, workshops, seminars, information & Advice meetings for heterosexual couples and families, in line, with our objectives to fulfil our public mandate and obligations.

During the course of the year, the trustees and volunteers delivered

1. Parenting Workshops & seminars to meet the needs of our married couples and single parents
2. Marriage Workshops & Seminars to address the needs of our married heterosexual couples and strengthen relationships.
3. Couples Retreat was held virtually online this year due to COVID-19 challenges

5. Youth Workshop focused on building character, family life, civic responsibility and community cohesion
6. Family Fiesta picnic - an annual event held within our community was rescheduled to 2022 due to COVID-19 restrictions

During the COVID-19 lockdown, through our Easter Flourish Project, we organised an outreach programme to support a poor community in Lagos, Africa through donation of food items to children and families in need.

We also provided online advisory support to our virtual community through our website and main social media channels - Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.
