Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Grant-Making Policy Fazilia UK (TFU) operates a clearly defined grant-making policy to ensure that its funding is directed toward impactful and mission-aligned initiatives. TFU provides grants in the key thematic areas of Education, Health, and Poverty Alleviation, with a primary focus on supporting organizations working in underdeveloped countries. Organizations based in the United Kingdom are not eligible for funding. The foundation prioritizes initiatives that: • Advance access to quality education • Provide essential healthcare services • Support low-income and vulnerable families TFU maintains specific funding restrictions to ensure responsible and effective use of its resources. The organization does not provide grants for: • Requests from individuals • Academic or scientific research projects • Standalone workshops, events, or symposia, unless these are part of a broader capacity-building initiative that strengthens an organization's service delivery.

		All funding decisions are guided by TFU's commitment to transparency, accountability, and alignment with its core charitable objectives.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	Nil
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Volunteers play a vital role in supporting the work of Fazilia UK (TFU) and contribute significantly to the delivery of its charitable objectives. Their contributions include: • Programme Support: Assisting in the planning and execution of charitable activities such as distribution of ration bags, educational support initiatives, and health-related assistance programs. • Community Outreach: Helping to identify and engage with deserving and vulnerable families to ensure that support reaches those most in need. • Fundraising Assistance: Supporting fundraising efforts through coordination, awareness-raising, and community engagement activities. • Administrative Support: Providing assistance with documentation, record-keeping, and coordination tasks to help ensure smooth operational functioning. • Logistical Support: Helping with the procurement, packaging, and distribution of aid items during relief activities.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society.	Para 1.20	Relief of Poverty, Education, and Health Fazilia UK (TFU) has been actively supporting vulnerable communities through a range of initiatives aimed at improving living conditions and overall well-being. The organization provides essential assistance to underprivileged families through the distribution of grocery items, helping to address immediate food security needs. In the area of education, TFU supports deserving students by covering tuition fees, thereby enabling continued access to learning opportunities. In addition, TFU offers health support and financial assistance to poor and disadvantaged families, ensuring access to necessary medical care and helping to ease the burden of healthcare expenses. Recognizing the economic challenges faced by many individuals, particularly those who have lost their livelihoods, the organization extends support by contributing towards medical and basic living expenses. These efforts are aimed at alleviating hardship and promoting stability among vulnerable segments of society.

A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Principal Risks Facing the Charity The principal risks facing Fazilia UK (TFU) are primarily operational, financial, and compliance-related, given the nature and scale of its activities. • Financial Sustainability Risk: As the charity relies mainly on voluntary donations, there is a risk of fluctuations in income, which may affect the continuity and scale of its programmes. • Operational Risk: Challenges in coordinating and delivering aid effectively, particularly in remote or underdeveloped areas, may impact timely implementation of charitable activities. • Safeguarding and Misuse of Funds Risk: There is a potential risk of misallocation or misuse of funds if proper controls and monitoring systems are not consistently maintained. • Compliance and Regulatory Risk: The charity must ensure ongoing compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Any failure to adhere to these obligations could result in reputational or regulatory consequences. • Reputational Risk: As with all charitable organizations, maintaining public trust is essential. Any perceived lack of transparency or effectiveness could negatively impact donor confidence and support. The trustees regularly review these risks and implement appropriate controls to mitigate them, ensuring that the charity operates effectively and in line with its objectives.

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	Fazilia UK (TFU) has a Trustee Management Policy in place that clearly outlines the process for selecting trustees, as well as defining the types of trustees and their respective roles and responsibilities. This ensures effective governance, accountability, and proper oversight of the organization's activities. To support the smooth and efficient functioning of the organization, TFU has also developed the following key policies and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs): • Conflict of Interest Management Policy – Ensures that any potential conflicts are properly identified, disclosed, and managed. • Fundraising Policy – Provides guidelines for ethical and transparent fundraising activities. • Grant Criteria Policy – Defines the eligibility and selection criteria for awarding grants.

		• Investment Policy – Outlines the principles for managing and safeguarding organizational funds. • Risk Management Policy – Establishes a framework for identifying, assessing, and mitigating risks. • Volunteer Management Policy – Governs the recruitment, engagement, and management of volunteers. • Reserve's Policy – Sets out the approach for maintaining financial reserves to ensure operational stability. These policies collectively support good governance, transparency, and the effective delivery of TFU's charitable objectives.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The Charity Trustees constitute the governing body of the organization. Given the current limited resources, the trustees collectively oversee all key governance and operational matters. All decisions are formally made through resolutions of the charity trustees, which may be taken either in meetings or through written or electronic communication. This ensures that decisions are properly documented, transparent, and in compliance with the organization's governance framework.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	Nil

Accounting policies

2.2 INCOME

Recognition of income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources;
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Yes*

Offsetting

There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.

Yes*

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP).

Yes*

In the case of performance related grants, income must only be recognised to the extent that the charity has provided the specified goods or services as entitlement to the grant only occurs when the performance related conditions are met (5.16 FRS 102 SORP).

Yes*

Legacies

Legacies are included in the SOFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Yes*

Government grants

The charity has received government grants in the reporting period

Yes*

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.

Yes*

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the charity has provided the related goods or services or met the performance related conditions.

Yes*

Donated goods

Donated goods are measured at fair value (the amount for which the asset could be exchanged) unless impractical to do so.

Yes*

The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt and they are recognised on receipt. In the reporting period in which the stocks are distributed, they are recognised as an expense at the carrying amount of the stocks at distribution.

Yes*

Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. On its sale the value of stock is charged against 'Income from other trading activities' and the proceeds from sale are also recognised as 'Income from other trading activities'.

Yes*

Goods donated for on-going use by the charity are recognised as tangible fixed assets and included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable.

Yes*

Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as income from donations when receivable.

Yes*

Donated services and facilities

Donated services and facilities are included in the SOFA when received at the value of the gift to the charity provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably.

Yes*

Donated services and facilities that are consumed immediately are recognised as income with an equivalent amount recognised as an expense under the appropriate heading in the SOFA.

Yes*

Support costs

The charity has incurred expenditure on support costs.

Yes*

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

Yes*

Income from interest, royalties and dividends	This is included in the accounts when receipt is probable and the amount receivable can be measured reliably.	Yes* ☒
Income from membership subscriptions	Membership subscriptions received in the nature of a gift are recognised in Donations and Legacies. Membership subscriptions which gives a member the right to buy services or other benefits are recognised as income earned from the provision of goods and services as income from charitable activities.	Yes* ☒ Yes* ☒
Settlement of insurance claims	Insurance claims are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP) and are included as an item of other income in the SoFA.	Yes* ☒
Investment gains and losses	This includes any realised or unrealised gains or losses on the sale of investments and any gain or loss resulting from revaluing investments to market value at the end of the year.	Yes* ☒
2.3 EXPENDITURE AND LIABILITIES
Liability recognition	Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not that there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.	Yes* ☒
Governance and support costs	Support costs have been allocated between governance costs and other support. Governance costs comprise all costs involving public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice. Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.	Yes* ☒ Yes* ☒
Grants with performance conditions	Where the charity gives a grant with conditions for its payment being a specific level of service or output to be provided, such grants are only recognised in the SoFA once the recipient of the grant has provided the specified service or output.	Yes* ☒
Grants payable without performance conditions	Where there are no conditions attaching to the grant that enables the donor charity to realistically avoid the commitment, a liability for the full funding obligation must be recognised.	Yes* ☒
Redundancy cost	The charity made no redundancy payments during the reporting period.	Yes* ☒
Deferred income	No material item of deferred income has been included in the accounts.	Yes* ☒
Creditors	The charity has creditors which are measured at settlement amounts less any trade discounts	Yes* ☒
Provisions for liabilities	A liability is measured on recognition at its historical cost and then subsequently measured at the best estimate of the amount required to settle the obligation at the reporting date	Yes* ☒
Basic financial instruments	The charity accounts for basic financial instruments on initial recognition as per paragraph 10.7 FRS102 SORP. Subsequent measurement is as per paragraphs 11.17 to 11.19, FRS102 SORP.	Yes* ☒
2.4 ASSETS
Tangible fixed assets for use by charity	These are capitalised if they can be used for more than one year, and cost at least They are valued at cost. The depreciation rates and methods used are disclosed in note 14.	☐ Yes* ☒
Intangible fixed assets	The charity has intangible fixed assets, that is, non-monetary assets that do not have physical substance but are identifiable and are controlled by the charity through custody or legal rights. Heritage assets	The charity has heritage assets, that is, non-monetary assets with historic, artistic, scientific, technological, geophysical or environmental qualities that are held and maintained principally for their contribution to knowledge and culture. The depreciation rates and methods used as disclosed in note 16. They are valued at cost.	Yes* ☒ Yes* ☒
Investments	Fixed asset investments in quoted shares, traded bonds and similar investments are valued at initially at cost and subsequently at fair value (their market value) at the year end. The same treatment is applied to unlisted investments unless fair value cannot be	Yes*

	end. The same treatment is applied to unlisted investments unless fair value cannot be measured reliably in which case it is measured at cost less impairment.	☒
	Investments held for resale or pending their sale and cash and cash equivalents with a maturity date of less than 1 year are treated as current asset investments	Yes* ☒
Stocks and work in progress	Stocks held for sale as part of non-charitable trade are measured at the lower or cost or net realisable value.	Yes* ☒
	Goods or services provided as part of a charitable activity are measured at net realisable value based on the service potential provided by items of stock.	Yes* ☒
	Work in progress is valued at cost less any foreseeable loss that is likely to occur on the contract.	Yes* ☒
Debtors	Debtors (including trade debtors and loans receivable) are measured on initial recognition at settlement amount after any trade discounts or amount advanced by the charity. Subsequently, they are measured at the cash or other consideration expected to be received.	Yes* ☒
Current asset investments	The charity has investments which it holds for resale or pending their sale and cash and cash equivalents with a maturity date less than one year. These include cash on deposit and cash equivalents with a maturity of less than one year held for investment purposes rather than to meet short-term cash commitments as they fall due.	Yes* ☒

Note 2Accounting policies*2.2 INCOME*Recognition of income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources;
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Yes*

Offsetting

There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.

Yes*

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP).

Yes*

In the case of performance related grants, income must only be recognised to the extent that the charity has provided the specified goods or services as entitlement to the grant only occurs when the performance related conditions are met (5.16 FRS 102 SORP).

Yes*

Legacies

Legacies are included in the SOFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Yes*

Government grants

The charity has received government grants in the reporting period

Yes*

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.

Yes*

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the charity has provided the related goods or services or met the performance related conditions.

Yes*

Donated goods

Donated goods are measured at fair value (the amount for which the asset could be exchanged) unless impractical to do so.

Yes*

The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt and they are recognised on receipt. In the reporting period in which the stocks are distributed, they are recognised as an expense at the carrying amount of the stocks at distribution.

Yes*

Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. On its sale the value of stock is charged against 'Income from other trading activities' and the proceeds from sale are also recognised as 'Income from other trading activities'.

Yes*

Goods donated for on-going use by the charity are recognised as tangible fixed assets and included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable.

Yes*

Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as income from donations when receivable.

Yes*

Donated services and facilities

Donated services and facilities are included in the SOFA when received at the value of the gift to the charity provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably.

Yes*

Donated services and facilities that are consumed immediately are recognised as income with an equivalent amount recognised as an expense under the appropriate heading in the SOFA.

Yes*

Support costs

The charity has incurred expenditure on support costs.

Yes*

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

Yes*
