Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	For the public benefit to promote the education (including social education), welfare and healthcare of people primarily (but not exclusively) in the Indian subcontinent in such ways as the charity trustees think fit
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Provision of full sponsoring for school fees and welfare support, in particular through the provision of after school tuition and homework support for up to/around 50 disadvantaged boys and girls, including a main meal for each of them on each school day.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. The trustees have recognised the 2 principles of public benefit and believe that the JPP Foundation meets them namely that: 1. there is an identifiable benefit or benefits and they are clear, related to the aims of the JPP

		Foundation and are balanced against any detriment or harm. The objects of the JPP Foundation are to focus on education, welfare and healthcare of young disadvantaged people in India. 2. The benefit is to the public or to a section of the public. That the beneficiaries are appropriate to the aims and, if to a section of the public, are not unreasonably restricted and that those in poverty are the beneficiaries and are specifically included in the opportunity to benefit. The potential beneficiary group of the JPP Foundation is those disadvantaged children in Pushkar in Rajasthan, India who are in need of educational and welfare support to facilitate, encourage and enable them to regularly attend and benefit from schooling and make progress in their studies and lives.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The JPP Foundation remains steadfast in its commitment to empowering underprivileged children, supporting over 50 students to attend private school alongside ongoing wraparound care provided by the local project. The foundation's dedication has yielded impressive results, demonstrably improving the academic standing and overall well-being of the children. The JPP children consistently demonstrate academic excellence, holding leadership positions as prefects and class leaders. Notably, a student recently became head boy of the local private school, marking a remarkable accomplishment! JPP fosters aspirations beyond academics. A former student, empowered by the program, is now entering college to pursue a medical career, setting a shining example for others. Numerous students harbour dreams of diverse professions, including fashion design, architecture, and science, fuelled by the unwavering support of the program. The local project leader expresses immense satisfaction with the children's progress and the nurturing environment created. Moving forward, ambitious plans are underway to propel the project to even greater heights. With the challenges of the pandemic hopefully behind them, the future holds exciting possibilities for continued improvements and lasting impact. Despite the disruptions and uncertainties caused by COVID-19, the project's success shines through. Children continued their education and thrived in the learning environment, consistently achieving impressive results. They
